RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN P. T. A. MEET

Big New Organization Surprises all With Activity

ROOM MOTHERS ARE APPOINTED

Large Audience Captivated by Poem Recital by Mrs.
W. J. Hausam

In spite of pouring rain a big turnout was at the Parent-Teacher association meeting in Arlington Heights Tuesday evening at the high school, and a rich program of work and entertainment followed. Many men were there.

In the business meeting, which came first, presided over by Mrs. Leslie Moodie, minutes were read by Mrs. Homer Evans, secretary, and then Mr. E. D. Whitmore, treasurer, reported a good healthy balance.

P. T. A. Room Posters

In each room in school is a P. T. A. poster, a sample of which was shown, representing a dark blue night sky. The poster has a silver star for each mother of a child in the room that belongs to the P. T. A. and a gold star for each father member. For 100 per cent parent membership for the room, a large silver star will be awarded. These clever posters were made by Mrs. Arthur Mundy, membership chairman.

A letter and petition were received from the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, of which Jane Addams is president, calling attention to the following resolution on "International Cooperation" adopted May 3 to 7, 1931 by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers:

"We stand for the renunciation of war as a national policy; for the active participation of the United States in the first World Disarmament Conference in February, 1932; for the ratification of the World Court Protocols; and for some lasting organization of nations which will insure international cooperation."

The letter, carrying signatures of Jane Addams, County Commissioner Amelia Sears, Judge Mary M. Bartelme, and others of like standing, urged securing of signatures to a Disarmament Petition which is being circulated in twenty-nine countries, and to be presented to the twenty-nine governments preparatory to the great conference.

The petition states: "The undersigned men and women, irrespective of party, are convinced that competition in armaments is leading all countries to ruin without security; that this policy renders future wars inevitable, and that there will be wars of extermination; that governmental assurances of peaceful policy will be valueless as long as those measures of disarmament are delayed that should be the first result of the pact for the renunciation of war."

Although announcement was brief, a number of signatures were secured; others wishing to sign may do so at the office of this paper.

Invited to Palatine

An invitation was received from Palatine P. T. A. to attend their meeting Dec. 8, at 3 o'clock at the Community room of Palatine high school. The subject will be "The Parents' Part in Social Hygiene." Probably a number will attend.

For Community Kitchen

Mrs. O. G. Barrett, Mrs. Simon and Mrs. George Schenberger were appointed to serve on the Community Kitchen committee with the Arlington Heights Relief committee. Mrs. H. Ashton was appointed chairman of the study class of which Mrs. Bruce Jarvis is to serve as leader.

School Mothers

School and Room Mothers were appointed as follows: Mrs. Heimer Olson, North School Mother; Room Mothers: Mrs. Peter Thomas, Miss W. H. 8th grade room; Mrs. Sam Taylor, Miss Hayford's 8th grade room; Mrs. George Schenberger, 7th grade; Mrs. Rau, 6th; Mrs. Victor Reed, 5th; Mrs. C. L. Nichols, 4th; Mrs. Harth, 3rd; Mrs. Ankley, 2nd; Mrs. George M. Kost, 1st.

South School: Mrs. L. D. Allison, School Mother; Room Mothers: Mrs. Wm. Kopplin, 7th; Mrs. Nathaniel Carlson, 6th; Mrs. Wm. Garland, 4th and 5th; Mrs. Geo. Harris, 2nd and 3rd; Mrs. Raymond Atkinson, 1st; Mrs. Leslie Griffith, kindergarten, a. m.; and Mrs. C. L. Davis, kindergarten, p. m. class.

Official program for the year 1931-32 were distributed and are available.

A suggestion box was started, and will be placed on the officers' table from now on. It is hoped it will be used freely. The next meeting of the executive committee will be next Monday night at the home of Mrs. Moodie, 508 N. Duane.

Officers: chairman of the schools will attend.

Lions Plan Big Thanksgiving Entertainment

Tickets are going fast for the big Lions Thanksgiving dinner and program next Tuesday evening at the Lutheran school hall. This will be a great evening, judging by the stellar attractions announced as well as several excellent surprise features to be sprung that evening.

Mr. Charles E. Luton, widely known one of Chicago's very best baritone singers, who sings character songs in the most entertaining manner, and whose genial, every day sort of personality makes everyone like him, will be one of the stellar attractions.

Another will be Mr. George Dalgely, assistant business manager of Northwestern university and widely known as a platform orator. He is very prominent in Rotary club activities, was formerly alumni secretary of the university, and is a graduate of the university school of speech since 1908.

A third stellar attraction will be Mr. Dan Nolan of the Lions International, a song leader par excellence, who will bring a lot of pep songs and other surprises.

The Lions club orchestra is preparing some hot stuff of its own, and are they good? Take it all in all, this bright array of talent as provided by President V. I. Brown and the entertainment committee are going to make an evening long to be remembered.

SEWER TRIAL INTERESTING TO SPECTATORS

Rumors Become Facts as Testimony is Taken;
Drawn-out Hearing

If there are any facts in connection with the big sewer in Arlington Heights that are not brought to light in the sewer trial that is being heard by Judge Jarecki, those facts are rather small. The actual trial started last week Tuesday and with the exception of short adjournments, has been "on the fire" ever since then.

Records of village as well as private records of firms are being presented as evidence in order to prove discrepancies between the original plans and estimates. Engineer Allen was upon the witness stand two days and was closely questioned regarding reasons for changes and extras that were allowed.

A number of engineers representing the objectors have taken the witness stand, one of whom was able to give minute description of the sewer.

The practice of board members selling to the village has been entered into the records. From evidence that has been presented, and stories brought out to Arlington Heights, the objectors are unearthing a lot of "dirt" in more ways than one.

A summary of the evidence and status of the case will be published in a coming issue of the Herald.

Arlington Heights Stores Report Buying Market

The general public appreciate the present market and are buying necessities liberally. That was the opinion of nearly every business house that participated in the Harvest-Thanksgiving sale that was announced and advertised in last week's paper, many of which sales are continuing over this week.

Some of the merchants report a record business Friday and Saturday.

The Bargain carnival held early in October and the Harvest Sale of this week have convinced many business houses that there is business to be had. A number report that their advertising brought many buyers from other towns.

These desire to keep up the "good work" and by concentrated effort make Arlington Heights a real bargain and shopping center.

A special section of the Herald is devoted this week to the Thanksgiving offerings of twenty merchants. The advertising columns of the Herald are becoming as interesting as the news columns. Subscribers are missing something if they do not read them.

Merle Guild Memorial Association To Give Thanksgiving Party

A summons has been sent to all members of Merle Guild Memorial association to be present at the Legion home for a Thanksgiving party tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

Y. A. Pecchia, president of the association, which is composed of all the members of both the American Legion and Ladies' Auxiliary, announces that there will be dancing, games appropriate for the occasion, and a midnight supper.

All members and prospective members of both the American Legion and Ladies auxiliary are urged to attend this party.

The committee in charge of this affair consists of Jeanette Pecchia, Frances McBride and George Goodspeed.

VILLAGE BD. COMMITTEES GIVE REPORTS

Delinquent Special Assessment Handling is Deferred

All the members of the Village Board of Arlington Heights being present last Monday evening, minutes were read by Clerk Harold Peter, approved, and then the meeting was open for complaints.

N. Dunton Street paving. Mr. Fred Pat of North Dunton street complained of a seeming inequality of assessments for new paving on North Dunton street. Discussion brought out the fact that by error one of the residents had been charged for 33 feet less frontage than he has. Village Attorney explained to her that the one property owner who had been charged too little would have his assessment adjusted upward for the extra 33 feet, but the rest were not due for any reduction.

The Police committee reported $100 in fines. Several business places have not paid their licenses, and the police were to collect in the near future, Mr. Framberg said. 1932 Village vehicle tax tags had been ordered from the W. W. Wilcox company.

The water committee reported that delinquent water users' accounts amounted to $939; also miscellaneous adjustments about town, especially flushing of hydrants.

The Building committee reported that Mr. Henry Schad, roofing contractor, had finished his work on the new collector's office at the Village hall, and wanted his money; that said jobs would be received at an early meeting on radiation for the collector's office, as well as for the newly arranged firemen's quarters and fire engine room in the municipal building, which latter is now in use.

The Sewer committee reported that owners of property lying on the north side of East Foundry road, have been erroneously assessed for direct benefits from the "Big Sewer," but without any connection with it. Mr. Thal recommended that credits be given on these assessments to pay for a lateral sewer. Mr. Thal is to go into the matter further.

Mr. Jasper, chairman of the committee also recommended that a complete map of the "Big Sewer" system together with specifications and figures be prepared for the benefit of citizens that wish to refer to them, and permanently mounted in some public place, preferably the pump house of the new treatment plant.

Standing water in a field near West Campbell street was complained of by Mr. Nicholas Weismann; it was found that a spaded ditch 300 feet long leading to the sewer, had been dug; they had filled in some of the bad holes on East Foundry road with gravel and cinders so as to prevent accidents; that they had graded Dwyer street from Euclid avenue to Campbell street; and purchased six bags of calcium chloride from Milburn Brothers for the purpose of thawing out frozen catchbasins this coming winter.

The Finance committee, Mr. Schaefer, chairman, reported favorably on bills and payroll, amounting to $1,006.63; and detailed below.

A recommendation was received from Mr. William Busch, architect for the new collector's office, that Mr. Frank Schulerburg, mason contractor, be paid $200 on the mason work done so far. It was voted unanimously that this be paid.

A meeting is to be held Friday night this week with the directors of the Arlington Heights State Bank relative to the Village money tied up in the bank, the committee announced.

Also Mr. McLean of Layne and Bowler, contractors for the Scarsdale well, would be out next evening (Tuesday) when the board would meet with him in regard to an adjustment on the price of the well, which fails to yield up to the contract.

Lighting Committee

Residents near Hickory and Marshall streets having asked for a light at that point, a reply was received from the Public Service company that it is a rule that they do not install new individual lights over 400 feet from existing lines. A plan was presented for street lights on the new section of the Northwest highway, east of town; this matter was held over until the next regular meeting.

A letter was received from the Dwyer Electric company in regard to a check they had received in exchange for a village time warrant, about four days before the Arlington Heights State bank closed.

They asked to have the time warrant back. It was thought by some that the matter was now between the company and the bank, and the matter was referred to the Finance committee.

Mr. Charles Peters of North Dunton avenue complained of the quality of the water he had been getting as his residence, and was referred to the water committee.

Early Publication Next Week

On account of Thanksgiving, this paper will go to press two days earlier than usual next week. News copy must be in publication office no later than Monday noon, and advertisements no later than Monday morning. Newspapers will be mailed so that deliveries can be made Wednesday in place of Friday.

TWO DIE IN DROP INTO CORNFIELD

Failure to Obey Instructions of Plane Owner Cause, Said

Two men were killed Sunday afternoon in an airplane crash about two miles south of Arlington Heights and a little less distance southwest of Mount Prospect. The plane took a tailspin from a height of about 800 feet into a cornfield on the Goebbert farm, about a mile east of Arlington Heights State road, and north of Algonquin road. A number of motorists saw the fall. No blaze occurred, and the broken gas tank seemed to be dry; so it is thought that the fall was started as the engine failed for lack of gas.

The men were Robert G. Lewis, about 33 years old, 3323 North Seeley avenue, Chicago, and former assistant city attorney during the Thompson regime; and Theodore Mason, 350 Center street, Chicago, about 28, a licensed private pilot but employed as a barber in Chicago.

Mason was giving Lewis a pleasure ride in a Curtiss Wright monoplane rented from his flying instructor, John J. Jaenicke at a private airport east of St. Charles. Jaenicke had charged Mason not to fly to Waukegan as they intended, since the gas tank would hold only seven gallons of gas which would last them only about an hour. He also asked them not to stop at any other airport. Instead of that, the pair stopped at Palwaukee airport and refueled. Where they went from there is not known, but the plane faltered in mid-air, and came down in the Goebbert cornfield, about 3:10 p. m.

The bodies of the two men were rushed to Mount Prospect hospital, but were found dead when they arrived.

Mr. Lewis was married and had a six-year old daughter. He was prominent in Republican politics in the south end of Chicago.

Mason had had ten hours of dual instruction and about 30 hours of solo flying.

State to Remedy "Death Curve"

As a result of newspaper stories published in this paper and the interest shown by a number of people, including County Commissioner, Homer J. Byrd, the state highway department is going to make changes at the intersection of Rand and Arlington Heights road that will eliminate "death curve." Assurance of such action by the state was received this week in the following letter addressed to Mr. Byrd:

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 12, 1931
Mr. Homer J. Byrd,
Cook County Commissioner,
Arlington Heights, Ill.
Dear Commissioner Byrd:

I received your clippings you recently forwarded with reference to the conditions on Rand and Arlington Heights road. I have given instructions to have the dangerous condition remedied at once.

Very truly yours,
G. N. Lamb,
District Engineer.

Warning Board to be Erected

As the Herald goes to press the editor is in receipt of a letter from Springfield stating that a black and white board has been ordered erected at the end of the headwall of the culvert on the S-curve, which is believed will eliminate the hazardous condition.

To Pave Arlington Heights Road

The 1932 program for Cook county includes the paving of Arlington Heights road from that city to Dundee road and Mr. Byrd states that there is no apparent reason why it will not be under contract early next year.

Need Forty Feet Thru Village

The Herald understands that the highway department does not favor paving less than forty feet thru any village, provided that residents are to retain parking privileges. The sentiment of the property owners along State road would have to be obtained before definite plans could be made for paving within the corporate limits. The present pavement on State road is very bad.

Dr. John M. Tutt To Lecture About Christian Science

Dr. John M. Tutt, C. S. B., member of the board of Lecturership of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, will lecture on Christian Science next Friday evening, Nov. 27 at 8 o'clock at First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Laurel avenue in Des Plaines. The lecture is free and all are invited.

New Chicago Bus Service Planned For N. W. Towns

A proposed passenger bus service through Arlington Heights, Palatine, Mount Prospect, Park Ridge, Niles and Tessville, to Chicago's loop, with rates the same as Railroad fare, will be put into effect by the Station to Lake Bus Line, Inc., of Crystal Lake, if they are successful in obtaining the necessary certificates of convenience and necessity from the Illinois Commerce commission.

This service, to be as frequent as public demand calls for, will operate from Harvard, Woodstock, Crystal Lake, McHenry, Dundee, Elgin, Algonquin, Carpentersville, Cary, and Barrington, through the local towns mentioned, down thru Lincoln avenue in Chicago's north side, striking State street at Erie, thence to the Marshall Field store, around through the loop, and thence returning.

Former Judge Henry M. Walker, of Chicago, who is attorney for the bus line, states that many business men are hailing the opportunity to get back and forth at railroad fare, without the necessity of paying extra taxi or carfare in the city. It is aimed to run the buses at the most convenient hours, Mr. Walker states.

STREET CAR, POST, CRUSH TRUCK DRIVER

Ernest Kuester of Arlington Heights Meets Death Suddenly

Ernest E. Kuester, 22 years of age, residing on a farm near Central and Rohlfing roads between Arlington Heights and Palatine, met his death early Tuesday morning while driving in Chicago after a load of feed for the Gardeners' Supply, Inc., in Arlington Heights. The new Ford truck, which he was driving, belonging to Kuester and Sons, was caught between the posts of a viaduct near 41st and Halsted streets, and a street car, which crushed the entire front of the machine and the driver with it.

The first inquest was held that afternoon at 650 W. 43rd street, and was continued until Dec. 9 at the Stock Yards station.

The funeral services will be at one o'clock at the Karstens Funeral Home in Arlington Heights, thence to St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church, also in Arlington Heights, the Rev. C. M. Noack and the Rev. H. C. Frick, both of the church, to officiate. Burial will be in Union Ridge cemetery.

The Kuester family were preparing to move to another farm near Northbrook. The deceased was unmarried.

Obituary

Ernest E. Kuester was born Feb. 21, 1909, in Chicago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuester. He was baptized and confirmed in St. John's Ev. Lutheran church in Chicago, of which Rev. Ruecke was pastor, and received his schooling in the school of that church. He passed away in Chicago, Nov. 17, 1931, at the age of 22 years, 8 months and 26 days.

He leaves his father and mother and two brothers, John, Jr., and Paul, all on the farm near Arlington Heights; one sister, Elsie (Mrs. Robert Altenburg) of Chicago, his brother-in-law, Mr. Altenburg, and many friends.

Young Thieves Try Thievery at Sterling

The Sterling Oil Station was entered sometime Tuesday night by young thieves, who were probably trying their first job, judging from the mess they left behind them. They took a poker from the depot to break a cash register, tried open a cash register that could much easier have been opened in the regular way, emptied two peanut machines and ransacked the place for the hiding place of money. They secured no money, but messed up the place considerably.

Benefit Football Game Sunday Helps Relief Activity

Don't forget the big Relief Fund football game to be played at the Arlington Heights athletic field Sunday afternoon, November 29, 2:30 p. m.

This game has been arranged through the kindness of our local football team who have picked a crack Chicago team as their opponents for that day.

The proceeds of this game will be donated to the Arlington Heights Relief fund.

Help your Relief committee in going over the top in their financial drive by attending this game.

Don't forget the date, place and cause. Tickets 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

COMMUNITY SERIES STARTS THIS EVENING

Three-Wheeling Through Africa; Give Special Terms on Tickets

Children's tickets for the highly illustrated traveltogue on wildest Africa tonight at the High School, (the first number of the Community Program series sponsored by the P. T. A. and the Woman's club) will be 25 cents, it was announced this week. Come and give the kiddies a treat; they will learn some real geography, see the Africans as they live, and the animals that inhabit the jungles. It will also be a great lesson in tolerance and friendliness toward other peoples.

Season tickets on Part Payments

Season tickets for adults—three big educational and entertaining evenings—are sold on the installment plan. Where two people buy at once, the $2 tickets are two for $3, or $1.50 each. They may pay 75 cents a ticket down, and 75 cents the second time. Or if they buy alone, they may pay the last 50 cents at the third lecture, by Prof. O'Shea.

If any have held back from buying season tickets all at once, they may come and pay the door admission now, which entitles them to buy a season ticket on the installment plan.

James C. Wilson, who brings this great entertainment to Arlington Heights, crossed wildest Africa with a motorcycle with the help of natives and one white companion. They visited 1200 miles of route never before seen by white men, and will bring the pictures, as well as a big array of valuable and strange articles to exhibit, tonight at 8 o'clock. No reserved seats.

Armistice Ball Social Success

One of the outstanding social events in recent years was the Armistice ball sponsored by Merle Guild post, No. 208, American Legion, in Arlington Heights.

About 300 men and women were present and enjoyed themselves at this peace anniversary ball.

Herbie Mintz and his melodious troubadours furnished a brand of music that kept the gathering anxiously waiting for the next dance.

It was a very impressive moment when at 11 o'clock everyone faced east while Legionnaire Wm. Simons blew taps.

Orange and grape crush punch was served by Mrs. M. Parker and Mrs. P. Roth.

Just how much the child welfare and relief will benefit from this affair is not known at this time, as all the tickets have not been turned in. A definite report will be made at the next legion meeting.

Commander George Davidson wishes to thank Legionnaires Moodie, Simons, Alden, Bockmeyer, Goodspeed, Hughes and Roth, who worked so hard to make this affair the great success that it was.

ARLINGTON LOSE GAME TO DUNDEE

Arlington Heights to Play Elks At DesPlaines Sunday

Charity Game Nov. 29th with Irv-Port at the High School Field

Arlington Heights lost to Dundee last Sunday to the tune of 13 to 0. The first half ended with no score, but Dundee scored two touchdowns in the last half.

Dundee had Arlington outwheeled by a big margin and completely outclassed the home team in every way. They are no doubt the best team Arlington have met.

Arlington have a fast team and plenty hard driving, but they could not do much against the Dundee team.

To Play Des Plaines Elks
Arlington will play the Des Plaines Elks next Sunday at Des Plaines. It may be recalled that Des Plaines beat the local team 7 to 0, early in the season. Although they have united with another Des Plaines team, Arlington also have a stronger team and are out to turn the tables on Des Plaines.

Charity Game

The last game will be at home Nov. 29, at the high school field; the proceeds to go to the local relief committee. They have chosen a crack team from Chicago for this engagement. Tickets are now on sale by the Relief committee for 35 cents. Come out and see the last game of the season.

Churches Plan Thanksgiving Observances

A community Thanksgiving service, under joint auspices of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches of Arlington Heights, will be held next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian building. The Presbyterian choir will probably sing special music; Rev. H. A. Kossack of the Presbyterian church will speak, as Rev. Samuel Taylor is obliged to be away that evening.

Other English services that evening at 8 o'clock will be held by St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran church, and at Christian Science Society.

Thanksgiving Day services are high mass and benediction at the Catholic church at 8 o'clock a. m., a German service at St. Peter's church at 10 o'clock, a German service at St. John's Evangelical church at 10:30, and in English by Christian Science Society at 11 o'clock.

BETTER BUSINESS OR DEPRESSION

—Caslow

Independent Merchants of Northwest Towns Hear Main Street Crusader

With both feet upon the ground and a road to Better Business before them, the independent merchants of the Northwest towns gathered around heavily laden tables at the Mt. Prospect Lutheran school hall Wednesday noon and listened to Mr. Caslow, the Main Street Crusader. Mr. Caslow in his talk threw no bricks at the chain organization but he pointed the way to better business methods for the independent merchants, which will solve the greater share of their present problems.

Mr. Caslow criticized the monopoly that is exercised by the two per cent who own 59 per cent of the wealth of this country. He pointed out the fallacy of many remedies for the depression as being advanced today. Freedom from a heavy tax load for the laboring man, a greater control by the government over corporations and the curtailment of the capitalistic rule of today were urged by the speaker.

Mr. Caslow talked for forty minutes and if there were any who came there as skeptics, they went away convinced that Mr. Caslow knows whereof he speaks.

The dinner was served by the ladies aid of the St. Paul's church, who received high praise for the menu and manner in which it was prepared and served. "Why should it not be good?" said one lady, "it is all independent food."

Mr. Shanahan, of the Pearsall Butter Co. of Elgin, was introduced speaker and told of the efforts he had put forth for the cause of the independent merchant and his confidence that the more they became organized, the stronger will be their position to maintain community business life which is the backbone of every village and hamlet. If the public has become "chain minded" it is partly the fault of the independent merchant, whose greatest weapon aside from better business methods, is publicity in some manner or form.

Representatives of the Main Street Crusader have visited the Northwest towns the past three weeks and have secured the cooperation of the majority of independent merchants forming an organization to bring about better business methods. Outpost meetings of the Northwest unit will be held at regular intervals. The merchants appear to enjoy getting together with fellow merchants of other towns and a more mutual understanding between them as well as between the purchaser and his home merchant is certain to result.

Safety Expert Visits Arlington Heights; Boosts Boy Patrols

Boys' Safety patrol work in Arlington Heights was given an impetus Monday by the visit of Mr. George D. Wardle, assistant director of safety of the Chicago Motor club. Mr. Wardle made talks on safety habits and regulations, before the children of the public and the parochial schools.

Particularly did he urge the children:

1. Pause before crossing any street.
2. Look in each direction.
3. Walk, not run, across the street.

About 5,500 children are killed in the streets of this country each year, Mr. Wardle said, and a large part of them will impulsively running across streets. By obeying these rules, accidents can be prevented.

"A very definite interest on the part of the school authorities" was reported by Mr. Wardle.

St. Peter's and St. James' schools now have Safety Patrols. A patrol will be organized at the South school soon, Mr. Wardle stated.

CHICAGO IN NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

—Swanson

States Attorney Gives Talk Before Elk Grove Republican Club

Judge Swanson, state's attorney of Cook county, who has the biggest job of its kind in the United States, gave a forty minute talk Wednesday evening before the Elk Grove Republican club. It was far from being an ordinary political speech—just a personal report to a small part of his constituency about the affairs of his office. He is an entertaining speaker and he told a lot of things that were extremely interesting.

While the meeting was held under the auspices of a Republican club, that was as near as it came to being a political mass meeting. It was a gathering of Republican-minded men and women, numbering 350. If more public officials would make similar reports of their stewardship direct to the people, there would be a better understanding between them.

County Commissioner William Busse presided and in his opening remarks said that it was gratifying to have so many present, especially the ladies, when there are no campaign issues under discussion. Mr. Busse outlined the organization of the club, formed because he and others believed that the time had come when Republicans should band themselves together so that collectively they would be ready to meet the campaign issues of next spring and elect desirable men to office.

"In times like these," said Mr. Busse, "no individual can not get very far; organization is needed." He expressed his hope that similar clubs can be organized in other townships.

Peppy singing, led by the successful Al Haacke, was a good opening for the program and during which Judge Swanson and party entered the hall and were given an ovation.

CARDINALS WIN AGAIN FOR CHARITY

Palatine Makes Great Defense but Loses
14 to 0

A fighting Palatine High football team went down to defeat before a more versatile Arlington eleven in the big charity game which was won by Heights 14-0. Palatine played inspired football during the first half when they stayed out of several Arlington threats but the Megel coached combination weakened in the last half.

The first half was largely a punting duel with neither Koelling or Meyer appearing to have much advantage. Irons showed greater skill in returning punts and the Pirates had the edge during the first quarter. Just as the quarter ended a mixup in signals brought about a misplay in the Palatine backfield and Arlington recovered on the Pirate 40 yard line. After Arlington had gained 33 yards on a pass and line plunges and suffered a 15 yard penalty Palatine took the ball on their own 22 yard line. Meyer's punt was for 20 yards. Steffen gained 12 yards on a sweep and the Palatine left end, Brodman passed to Wilke for 11 yards, and Koelling made several short gains through the line but Palatine eventually held and took the ball on their own three yard line. A bad pass from center went over Smith's head and the best he could do was recover and score a safety for Arlington. The score at the half was Arlington, 2; Palatine, 0.

Koelling Leads Attack
After an exchange of punts starting the third quarter, Koelling hit the line twice for first down. Palatine was penalized 15 yards and then Koelling made two more first downs on four end runs. Arlington finally gave up the ball on the Palatine four yard line. Meyer cut a good punt to the 40 yard line but Hauff ran it back 30 yards to the Palatine 10 yard line. On three plays Koelling went over for a touchdown. A try at the line for another point failed.

The Arlington touchdown seemed to revive temporarily a weakening Palatine team and after the kick off Meyer registered a first down on two plays and a 20 yard pass to Hendren gave the Pirates their second and final first down on the game.

Late in the final quarter Palatine was forced back to their own one yard line when a bad pass from center went over Smith's head but George got off a nice kick to relieve the situation. In the closing minutes of the game, Meyer tossed a short pass which Stefanik intercepted and ran back 35 yards for a touchdown. Again the attempt to convert was a failure.

Brodman's Passing Features
Palatine never threatened the Arlington goal but aside from the third quarter put up their best defensive exhibition of the season. Superior line play, Brodman's six completed passes out of eight attempts and Koelling's drives off tackle and around the ends were high lights of the Arlington playing. Heights showed superior punting and passing while their margin of net ground gained was 120 yards to 34.

Meyer gained the greater share of Palatine's yardage and never failed to advance the ball on any of his ten attempts. Hartman at right end made a number of sensational tackles which resulted in big losses for Arlington. Langhorst was injured on the first play of the game and forced to retire in favor of "Bill" Pausek who made a creditable showing in his debut as an end.

It was the best officiated game played in the conference this season with Kelson of Warren and Watson of Leyden umpiring and refereeing.

Palatine and Arlington grid teams split even in a double header charity bill on the Heights field last Saturday as the Pirates copied the preliminary lightweight encounter, 6-0, and the Cardinals took the main event, 14-0. Both games were played on a muddy field which cut fast open field running and passing to a minimum.

Palatine Lights Win Letters in Victory in Charity Double Header

Urged on by the promise of letters if they turned in a victory, the Palatine second team turned in a brilliant game to win 6-0 and avenge an earlier 18-7 defeat. The little Pirates showed a fighting spirit which gave them a big edge over their rivals.

The lightweight started out like a house afire with Thompson slashing a tackle for 11 yards on the first play of the game. Their touchdown drive was halted on the Arlington 20 yard line but after the Heights eleven was forced to punt the Palatine lads came right back for a touchdown. Ketterman snagged a 20 yard forward pass, Thompson shattered the line for ten yards and Alex Tudyman plunged eight yards for the touchdown.

For the remainder of the game Palatine had a distinct advantage but neither eleven made a serious threat to score. Palatine made seven first downs to Arlington's four. Thompson and Tudyman gained most of the yardage while DePue, Hinrichs, Neagle, Ketterman, Regenberg, Kuhlman, Taylor, Blankenship, and Bereman prepared the way for the line smashers and presented an impenetrable defense against the Arlington attack.

Miss Lindsey of High School Operated Upon

Miss Edith L. Lindsey, of the English department of the Arlington Heights Township High School, was operated on for appendicitis at the West Suburban hospital at Oak Park, Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. Miss Lindsey had visited friends in Oak Park over Sunday and when she became ill Sunday afternoon a physician was called who diagnosed the case as probably being appendicitis. However, to make sure, he delayed final decision until Tuesday afternoon. In the meantime, the symptoms of appendicitis were so definite as to convince him that an operation was necessary.

Aside from this attack Miss Lindsey has been in excellent health and there is every reason to believe that she will be able to assume her duties within a short time. Mrs. John L. Grose, a former teacher in this department, is substituting for Miss Lindsey during her enforced absence.

Word came at ten o'clock next morning that Miss Lindsey came through the operation successfully.

Garden Club Follows Horticultural Tour Sight-Seeing Views

The justifiable response to the announcement that Prof. Eifrig of Concordia Teachers college of Oyster Forest was to be the speaker, was a record attendance on the part of the members of the Arlington Heights Garden club. Prof. Eifrig's subject was "By Ways of Botany."

With the use of lantern slides, he led a spell-bound audience over carefully presented and appreciable part of the Old World, rambling among old ruins and admiring the intact and the living, with here and there, attention called to the horticultural pursuits of the Old World friends.

This was the regular meeting of the Arlington Heights Garden club, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McBride.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kaeppler, in Stonegate.

Benefit Receipts Are $60

The benefit football game between the Palatine Township High School and the Arlington Heights Township High School, on the local grounds last Saturday afternoon was exceptionally well attended considering the weather. The local report showed that $42.25 was taken in at the gate. In addition to this there was probably some $20 worth of tickets sold by the Palatine Township high school, and inasmuch as there were no expenses it seems that some $60 will be added to the relief funds in each town.

The relief committee desires to take this opportunity to thank the two high schools, and particularly to thank coaches Watson and Kelson, and Mr. Pufer for donating their services as officials.

ARLINGTON HTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Benson drove to Madison, Wisconsin, Saturday to attend the Ohio-Wisconsin football game. It was Homecoming at the University of Wisconsin and they enjoyed seeing old friends again.

Mrs. Glen Benson attended a dinner and meeting of the alumni chapter of Coranto, national professional journalism sorority, Tuesday evening at the University club in Chicago.

Wilmer Nieman is now cadet Nieman of Morgan Park Military academy. Friends of Arlington Heights have missed his happy smile.

The McWharther children have all had the chicken pox. Royce has so far recovered so as to be able to return to school, but the two girls are not yet well enough.

Mrs. Clara Horstman of Chicago visited eight relatives and friends one day last week.

Mrs. James F. Thomas kindly invited a number of friends to hear an educational lecture and pictures of Mexico, which took place at her home Tuesday evening. Everyone enjoyed the dainty refreshment and the good time at this hospitable home.

Mrs. Fred Kastning has been a sufferer in bed with rheumatism of late. Hope for her recovery soon.

Mrs. Lydia Brueggeman (nee Noack) returned last week to her home in Fremont, Neb. She spent two weeks with her parents, Rev. Noack and the Rev. Poellot family in Palatine and other friends. Her visit was all too short as many of her schoolmates and friends did not even know of her visit here until after her return home. Hope she may have the opportunity again soon and make a more lengthy visit.

Mrs. E. Rapp and her twin boys spent a few delightful days last week with her sister and family in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meyer, of South Mitchell avenue, have a new nine-month baby son, Lloyd Wesley, born at Mount Prospect hospital Wednesday night, Nov. 18.

Manual Training Boys Lead Way in 1931 Toy Project

The Manual Training department of the Arlington Heights high school has joined in the efforts to make possible some Christmas cheer in homes which have suffered from the unemployment depression. Mr. A. M. Conger, head of the department, and a number of the boys in the department, have been using their spare time to make toys.

The wood has been furnished by some of the local business men, mostly from discarded boxes. Three projects have been worked out so far; a wagon, a jointed dog, and a set of magic blocks. Some fifty articles have been produced to date, and the work is still going.

Mrs. Webber, of the Webber paint store, has agreed to paint and decorate the toys as she did last year. Those who remember the display in the window of the Webber paint store last year will recall it was a veritable toy shop, and it is hoped to make it even better this year.

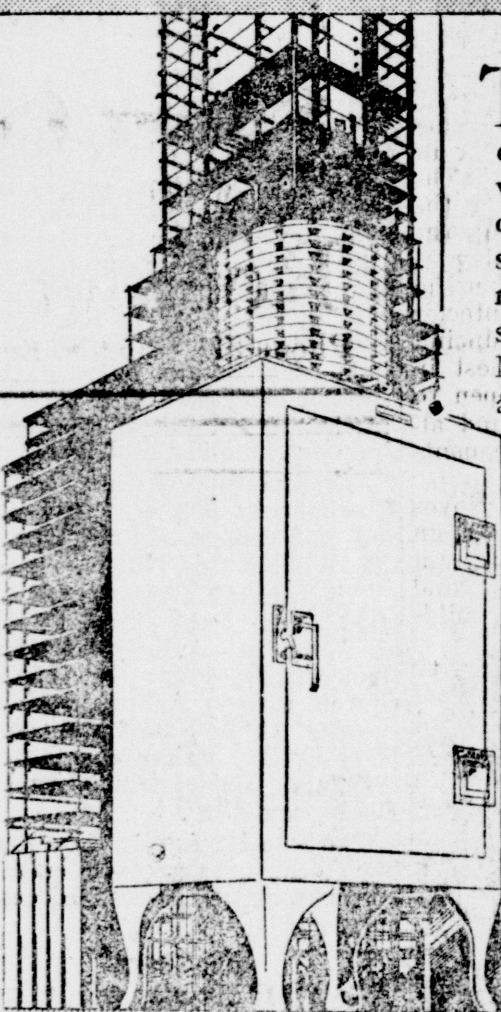

The project is being sponsored by the Arlington Heights Lions Club. They are asking all civic organizations to help with the plans. Distribution will be made through the various civic and church organizations of the city, and it is hoped that no child in Arlington Heights will be compelled to be without a visit from "Santa Claus."

PLEASE NOTICE

Monday, November 23, the Parent Auxiliary of Boy Scouts will meet with W. A. Miles, on Derbyshire lane, at two o'clock afternoon. It is sincerely desired that all members of this organization will be present and also all mothers of boys of Scout age. They make these meetings a pleasant social affair with refreshments and plain sensible talks about the building of best things for our boys.—N. B.

Mrs. Miles requests that all who plan to attend, will please let her know as early as possible.

Stage Declaration Contest Next Sunday Toward "World Peace"

Next Sunday evening, Nov. 22, preliminaries of the Peace of Peace declaration contest will be held at the Northbrook Presbyterian church. Boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 (to Feb. 2) are eligible. Winner of first place will be awarded a bronze medal. Winners of first place in the state contests will be awarded college scholarships and cash prizes. This is the first annual contest of the kind in the interest of World Peace to be put on by the Illinois Council of Churches.

Dr. J. H. Renner Sells Practice to Dr. O'Grady

Dr. Geo. E. O'Grady, of Chicago has purchased the practice of Dr. J. H. Renner, who expects to leave Palatine in about two weeks for California. Dr. Renner has desired for sometime to locate further west and when the opportunity came to dispose of his practice in Palatine, he did so.

Dr. O'Grady comes to Palatine with an experience of 16 years as a physician. Following his graduation, he spent his internship at the Alexian Brothers' hospital. Later he took a postgraduate course in diseases of women and children, in which he specializes.

Dr. O'Grady is married and expects to move to Palatine in the near future, occupying the flat over his office.

$50.00 reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of anyone breaking windows or in any way destroying the property, 619 N. State road, Arlington Heights, Home National Bank of Elgin, Ill.

SURPRISING PICTURES OF INDIA SHOWN

Eye-Witness Tells of Scenes Almost Beyond Credence

With walls well covered with tapestries from India, and tables covered with curios, beaten silver and brass work, showing the artistic abilities of the Hindu people, Mrs. Earl Tweedie, twenty years at Lucknow, India, gave Sunday night at the Methodist hall in Arlington Heights an illustrated lecture on seemingly the strangest and most unhappy country in the world.

Very remarkable and clear colored views showing the daily life of the people, views taken largely by herself and her husband, were very interesting and enlightening as to the way those strange people think and live, or rather exist.

The stories of the frightfully unsanitary conditions arising from superstition, ignorance and poverty of the people, would seem to be beyond credence if it were not for the fact that so many travelers' stories agree. Mrs. Tweedie showed views of Benares, the most "sacred" city in India, also the "holiest," according to Mrs. Tweedie, where the River Ganges serves as sewer, and carrying away of half burned human bodies, as well as water for drinking, cooking and ceremonial purposes.

The pictured improvement in the countenances and physical condition of the Christian Indians as compared with the general population, seemed most striking. The general population are 90 per cent illiterate; the native Christians are 26 per cent literate.

Most Hindus appear as if they never had a square meal in their lives. The children's abdomens are distended, and legs thin; from eating soil, apparently to gain some mineral matter in their diet. Eight cents a day, working in the broiling sun, is a fair wage in India, according to Mrs. Tweedie. The utter lack of modern tools and machinery and of the most elemental necessities of civilized living—except with the rich—seems absolutely astonishing.

Yet the people of India, freed from ignorance and superstition by Christianity, are just like the rest of us, are just as charming and lovable, according to Mrs. Tweedie. The people are pleading for teachers and preachers, yet, hundreds of such have been called back since the "depression," due to lack of the very meager sustenance they require. Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie are among those who were thus recalled.

Katherine and Janet Taylor, in Hindustani costume of the well-to-do classes, sang two Christian hymns in Hindustani tunes and words. Rev. Samuel Taylor presided. He and Mrs. Taylor spent five years in India, and were associated with the Tweedies.

Pictures of coolies, carrying heavy loads of timber, lumber, grass and other materials on their backs ten miles and seven thousand feet up to Landour for 14 cents, were shown. It is a carpenter's job in India not only to put in door and window frames, but to saw out the boards from hardwood logs, by hand. The farmer in reaping the grain, sits down and pulls up each wheat plant by hand. And so on ad infinitum. A barber's equipment consists of a razor and a brick,—the brick is for the customer to sit on. The shop is anywhere in the street a customer can be found. The rates—one cent a shave for natives, eight cents for Americans or English!

England has done great things for India, by introducing vast irrigation projects, railroads and other modern improvements. The native farmers are impoverished by having to pay tribute to 700 native rulers that own the lands and maintain their own governments, armies, etc., as well as the priests that keep their minds in subjection.

Large cakes of brown sugar on a local street stand were shown. These were made in holes in the ground, cemented with manure from the sacred cows and black with flies—considered a great delicacy.

Woman's Club Sees Chicago University

Did They Come Out—And Did They Sing—We'll Say They Did!

The way the Community choral society in Arlington Heights went through the brilliant choruses of "The Creation" last Monday evening at the South school was a delight to all. A great concert in February is assured.

Although there was a fine attendance there is room for many more voices, and everyone is wanted. The most difficult "roughing out" of the parts has been done. Those that come now will find the real drudgery done and the strong voices next to them will largely carry them along in the stream.

Miss Mercie Heise of Palatine high school has kindly consented to play for the chorus for the remainder of the year, and was given a welcome. Other Palatine and Mount Prospect people are attending, and enthusiastic. Such musical work has never been done in local communities before. It is like being in a university or large city, and is attracting many congenial people together. Mr. Theodore Militzer, one of the most able directors in the state, fortunately is a resident of Arlington Heights, and is thus giving his splendid services.

WANT YOUR SAME LICENSE NUMBER?

Chicago, Ill. All offices of the Chicago Motor club are now supplied with applications blanks for 1932 licenses for automobiles and trucks, and are prepared to assist all owners of motor vehicles in filling them out.

Under the Illinois motor vehicle act the same license number as was issued this year can be secured next year if application and request for it are in the hands of the secretary of state before December 1. The signatures of applicants for 1932 licenses will be reproduced photostatically upon the license card.

Woman's Club Sees Chicago University

A delightful personally conducted tour of the University of Chicago campus was taken by 38 members and friends of the Woman's club of Arlington Heights Wednesday. The day was ideal. They chartered DesPlaines' biggest street car style bus, and left Frankberg's in Arlington Heights about 9:30 o'clock.

"Out of Luck"

The first main point of interest was the World's Fair and the outer drive; but although the bus was specially chartered for the party, the police would not allow the bus on the outer drive, the bus rights being reserved exclusively for the Chicago Motor Coach company, a private corporation. The ladies were informed that if they would charter a bus from this other concern, they would be permitted to go sight-seeing around the world's fair grounds. "One great and glorious racket," was the expressed opinion of the ladies of the party.

So they had to go down Michigan avenue to the University.

At 11:30, they were seated on a raised platform in the Men's Commons of Hutchinson Hall, around which are great portrait paintings of notables in the history of the university. The cooking was "wonderful" and prices "very reasonable." At 12:30 they were met by a student guide, who took them around the university, then into the larger quadrangle, now lacking only three buildings, two of these being now provided for by gifts. The medical buildings were pointed out; and the observatory tower from which come the official weather forecasts for the Chicago area.

From Swift Hall, they walked through the cloister to Bond Chapel, a perfect example of gothic architecture, which is much talked for weddings at a fee of $5; then through Haskell Hall, and into the Harper library. They were shown the new style of classroom, not with individual chairs with tablet arms, but very large round tables, around which the class sits.

Then the Midway was visited; the university now owns property on both sides of this long park, for a mile and a half, to allow for more building.

Impressed by Great Chapel

Then the two million dollar University chapel was visited; considered one of the most beautiful buildings in the world, equally beautiful on all sides. The coldness of the great bare stone arches inside is relieved by the five ceiling sections of colored tiles. The wood carving is by, or under the supervision of Anton Lang, the "Christus" of the Passion play at Oberammergau. Glass is plentiful and light colored so the interior is cheerful from that standpoint. The organ is one of the finest in the world. The chapel is open to use by all denominations; and although it seats 2000, it is frequently overcrowded.

The ladies next visited Ida Noyes Hall, a perfect reproduction of an old English manor house, both in architecture and furnishings, and which is used as a Woman's building.

All buildings of the University are of Gothic architecture and built to last for "decades," as the guide conservatively stated.

The ladies passed the boat house of Frank Lloyd Wright architect and visited the buildings of the Chicago Theological Seminary, affiliated with the University of Chicago. Of special interest was the Thordyke Hilton chapel, complete, though very small, and in great demand for weddings. The Punk cloister, along which were set stones from ancient buildings all over the world, some with ancient inscriptions, was of special interest. They also enjoyed going into the Graham Taylor chapel.

On the way home the party stopped at the Garfield Park conservatory and took the chrysanthemum display.

The expense was 96 cents each, besides the luncheon.

ITASCA

The Itasca Bridge club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ernst Kragel Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Brenner of Wisconsin are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Goeddeke.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Broker and family of Medina were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Broker, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Haunstrup returned to their home in Itasca this week after a summer's sojourn at Bangs Lake. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Schaefer who occupied the home of Mr. and Mrs. Haunstrup during their absence left for San Jose, California, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brockmeier entertained relatives from Chicago Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Van Gelder and small daughter of Bellamhan, Washington are visitors at the home of Dr. G. F. Schroeder.

Harold Koenig, who was taken suddenly ill of appendicitis and operated upon at Elmhurst hospital Thursday of last week, is reported recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

Ronald Schneider is improving nicely from his recent operation.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Spierling have as their guests this week, Mr. Spierling's sister and her husband, Mrs. Ralph Ginsberg entertained Mesdames Jeanette Coofes Hulseter of Lombard and Marjory Whitlock of Glen Ellyn at a one o'clock luncheon Thursday.

Miss Marjory Schroeder entertained relatives and guests in court tesy of her birthday Saturday evening. The party included guests from Chicago, Melrose Park and Valparaiso, Indiana. Misses Louise Vogel, and Florence Schulte, Messrs. Paul Mueller and Carl Loomis of Valparaiso college remained over the week.

The Presbyterian church is sponsoring a play, "The Little Clothpiper" to be given at the village hall two evenings in December. Mrs. Mason is directing the play.

The Dorcas Circle supper held at the Presbyterian church Thursday night was a success both financially and socially. The basement of the church was prettily decorated in green and white caught in streamer festoons over the tables, the waitresses, the girls of the Yu Kuo club, wore colored caps which enhanced the beauty of their costumes. The Dorcas Circle members noted for their famous suppers surely served this to their credit. The attendance was good and everyone seemed to be blest with a wonderfully good appetite.

The Sewing circle sponsored by the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. H. F. Lawrence Thursday to sew for charity. This circle is a department of the missionary society of the church. Work completed is credited to that society.

Trustees of the Presbyterian church are sponsoring a target shoot in Ed. Pfluger's pasture on Irving Park boulevard Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Game won will be just right for the Thanksgiving table—turkeys, geese and ducks. The general public is cordially invited to make this a success.

The Thanksgiving church services will be held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, at eight o'clock. Rev. Kesselring will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon.

Rev. F. Zersen will deliver Thanksgiving sermons in both German and English at the regular church hours, 9:30 and 10:45 a. m. at St. Luke's church on Thanksgiving day.

The Walther League meets this week Friday evening in a social hour in the parlors of the church.

Prof. W. H. Heinmiller of Naperville college occupied the pulpit of the Evangelical church Sunday morning. Prof. Heinmiller is a friend of Rev. Kesselring and with his family who accompanied him, was entertained at the parsonage, Sunday.

Members of the Evangelical church are inviting members and friends of the church with their families to a Thanksgiving offering dinner Friday evening at seven o'clock. The dinner is served free of charge. A program will be held in the church taking the form of a Thanksgiving offering to which everyone is invited to contribute.

The Missionary society of the Evangelical church was held at the home of Mrs. Don Miars Thursday afternoon. A social hour followed the business and study hour.

The King's Daughters are sponsoring a bazaar and food sale at the village hall Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Parent-Teacher association held the regular meeting at the school auditorium Monday night. There was a good representation of parents and pupils who were interested in a talk on Safety First given by Mr. Warble of Chicago. Police officer McClay also gave some needed information and Mr. Von Gunten showed films that were interesting to the children. Mr. Hoveland, principal of the school talked on the work of the boy's patrol.

Church night will be observed by the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The program has been arranged for a social hour and refreshments.

Write FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION ON "ELECTRIC HOTBEDS"

Last spring and summer, truck farmers and greenhouse men in northern Illinois began to use electric heat in their hotbeds and greenhouse benches. Special "electric hotbed" cable was laid a few inches under the soil and because the ground temperatures could be controlled easily, the results were unusually satisfactory.

The Public Service Company is now working with farmers in adapting electric heat to their particular hotbed problems. The advantage of such a system are many. Tomatoes, peppers, cabbages and other plants (as well as flowers) can be started before the regular season. Their growth is quick and uniform—making the products ready for earlier marketing. Plants on an early market bring more money.

There are also savings in time and labor. Once the electric heating cable is laid, it is a simple matter to get the hotbed ready for each season's crop. No manure mixture is required as a source of heat.

Your present hotbeds can be easily converted into electric hotbeds. The cost of the electric current to operate them is small. A special rural representative of the Public Service Company, experienced in this work, will be glad to give you complete information. Just fill out the coupon below. You will not be obligating yourself in any way.

PHANTOM PILOT MYSTERY PLAY FOR RELIEF

V. F. W. To Present Local Talent, St. Paul's Hall, Dec. 4 and 5

The greatest mystery play yet attempted with local talent will be presented at the St. Paul auditorium by Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the evenings of December 4 and 5.

The veteran's aim has always been to present a play fully worthwhile and much time and thought was put into the selection of a mystery play. Many of the characters have taken part in a play at one time or another and with this advantage we assure you it will be enjoyed by all who attend.

The play, which will be enacted for your pleasure, will also bring pleasure and joy to others. Yes, it is a hard grind for our boys to lie in bed for years at a time and not be able to move without the assistance of others. But with all their suffering their face brightens up when a buddy (even if they have never met before) comes to their cot, shakes their hand and offers some consoling remark or perhaps candy or cigarettes. Yes, they have had something in common together even though they may be strangers. The War! Oh how we like to forget those days and all our unpleasant memories when our husband, father or brother was "Over There." It's over now, and we do so want to forget! Or don't we? No! We will not forget and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will stand back of "Our Boys" even though the war is over.

It is not these boys alone that must have help. There are widows and orphans and in these days of depression, now, more than ever, the needy families. Prospect Post No. 1337 V. F. W. have answered many distress calls both local and otherwise.

The purpose of the post has been to carry on and here we ask you to share with them. Your reward in purchasing a ticket will be to see a good, clean, funny and exciting play and when the play is over you still have the satisfaction of doing your share toward "The Boys" who cannot forget. Tickets can be purchased from any member, so let's go to the St. Paul auditorium on December 4th or 5th.

Mount Prospect Women Applaud Cooking Expert

Miss Martha Pickett of the Home Service department of the Public Service Co., gave the third of a series of six lessons in cookery, Tuesday, Nov. 17, at the American Legion Auxiliary cooking school. Minerals, water and vitamins were the principal subjects of Miss Pickett's discourse.

It is now a well known fact that these somewhat mysterious elements are very important factors in the diet. Vegetables and fruits are common sources of these elements. "With all the vegetables we have now," Miss Pickett said, "the housewife can vary the meals constantly, and thus avoid monotony." And even if one must stick to the old favorites, there are numerous different ways of serving them attractively.

One of the unusual dishes which she demonstrated was the spinach loaf, which combines spinach, celery, onion, bread crumbs and eggs into a tasty and well-balanced meal in itself. Mrs. Strobach was the fortunate one to win this nutritive dish.

Another recipe, rich in rare and necessary food elements, was the liver loaf. Into this recipe Miss Pickett added many ingredients rich in vitamins which are frequently missing in many ordinary meals. The lucky number for this prize was held by Mrs. Baird. The frozen fruit salad was drawn by Mrs. Hendrickson, the stuffed apples by Mrs. Fenton, and the stuffed cabbage by Mrs. Lang.

All through Miss Pickett's demonstrations the women bent over their books, taking notes on the little tricks of cooking passed on to them.

There will be three more lessons in the course, the next being on Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 10 a. m. Ladies who have not as yet been able to attend can still gain valuable information by attending the remaining three lessons.

NOT TOO LATE TO APPLY FOR VET "BONUS"

Contrary to the general impression among world war veterans, it is not too late to file applications for their world war "bonus." This information was emphasized today by Commander Pohlmann of Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in response to a number of inquiries concerning these certificates, apparently aggravated by present discussions favoring immediate cash payment of the so-called bonus.

"The time limit for filing these applications has been fixed by Congress as Jan. 1, 1935," Commander Pohlmann explained. "This information was emphasized today by Commander Pohlmann of Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in response to a number of inquiries concerning these certificates, apparently aggravated by present discussions favoring immediate cash payment of the so-called bonus."

Every world war veteran who has not already received his adjusted service compensation certificate is urged to communicate immediately with Commander Pohlmann of Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States at Mt. Prospect, Ill., for advice and assistance in filing applications.

Adjusted service compensation was made available for all world war veterans in 1924. Those who are entitled to $50.00 or less, were eligible to receive this pay in cash immediately after this law was enacted. Those whose service entitled them to larger benefits received the adjusted compensation certificates which granted $1.00 a day for service in this country and $1.25 a day for service overseas.

"The average value of these certificates has been estimated by the Veterans Administration at $1,000 and it behooves every world war veteran to make immediate application for these certificates, even though he happens to be in no special need of additional funds at this time."

"Those veterans who find themselves in desperate circumstances and who have not filed their applications are urged to do so at once," Commander Pohlmann emphasized. In the face of probable action on these certificates, prompt application will eliminate needless delay in securing any benefits that may be granted."

Those desiring information along this line are invited to get in touch with Commander Pohlmann of Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States at Mt. Prospect, Ill.

TO COLLECT CLOTHING AND FOOD TUESDAY

Unemployed Asked to Register at Postoffice; Aim to Get Work

The regular monthly meeting of the Mount Prospect General Relief committee was held Tuesday evening at Village hall. Several organizations failed to have their representatives present. The total amount collected in the recent drive was $287.21. Plans are under way to provide some work in the village for the unemployed who register at the postoffice. It was suggested that when anyone is in need of a capable man, woman or girl to work that the relief investigators be called as all men, women and girls who are able and willing to work are asked to register immediately.

Tuesday, November 24, was decided upon as the day to collect clothing and food throughout the entire community. Mr. J. F. Bernhardt was appointed chairman of the drive. Handbills will be distributed by the Boy Scouts Saturday morning, and on Tuesday afternoon house to house solicitations will be made by ladies. When your doorbell rings Tuesday afternoon, have your gift of canned goods, vegetables or other food stuffs and any clothing you are able to spare, ready to hand the workers. If you fail to answer the door or are missed, your gift will be acceptable at Relief headquarters in the old bank building. Do what you can with a smile and let Mt. Prospect be a place where the unemployed may be taken care of without anyone suffering.

The next regular meeting will be December 15.

Woman's Club to Have Card Party

The Mt. Prospect Woman's club will have a card and luncheon party this Friday evening, November 20, at 8 p. m. in the basement of the public school building. The tickets are 35 cents. Refreshments will be served cafeteria style.

Get your friends together and come out for a good time.

Legion Auxiliary District Meeting in Mount Prospect

Thursday evening of this week the ladies of the American Legion auxiliary were hostesses to the officers and delegates of the Ninth District, at the Northwest Hills Country club. Reports of several of the district officers stimulated an unusual amount of interest and valuable discussions among the delegates. An important feature of the evening was the address of Mrs. E. Rise, of Highland Park, hospital chairman at Great Lakes. "Membership" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Adams, of particular importance at this time because of the nation wide membership drive.

A social hour followed the business session during which refreshments were served.

WOOD DALE ADOPTS COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT

The voters of Wood Dale decided last Tuesday to change its form of government to the Commission plan. It was a hotly contested election. The vote cast indicated the interest of the voters in the proposition. Over 95 per cent of the voters exercised their franchise. The vote was 81 for the change as against 71 opposed.

Fourteen Babies at Infant Welfare Meeting

The attendance at Infant Welfare meeting was not as large as usual because of the change of date this month, however, fourteen babies were examined by Dr. Wolfarth. All children of preschool age are eligible to this free examination which is given by the Cook County Department of Health to help keep well babies well. The local work is under the supervision of the rural nurse, Miss Helen Jackson. The second Wednesday of each month from 10 to 12 a. m. is infant welfare at Community hall.

A car owned by Mr. Parks was unable to make the short turn from the Northwest highway to Center road and missed the crossing planks with the result that with wheels between the rails it was necessary to flag a train to prevent an accident. The driver intended to go south, but was evidently not aware of the "short" crossing.

Chicago Civic Opera Will Present Revival of Herodiade Thanksgiving

Traviata Scheduled for Saturday "Pop"

Massenet's Herodiade, one of the revivals announced for the current season by the Chicago Civic Opera, comes to production to feature the third week of the season. The work, last sung in Chicago during the season of 1925-26, will be presented with Mary McCormic as Salome, Maria Olszewska as Herodiade, Rene Maizon as John the Baptist, John Charles Thomas as Herod and Chase Baromeo as Phanel. Emil Cooper will conduct. The opera will be presented for the first time on Thanksgiving night.

Another first performance of the season will be Verdi's La Traviata, to be given for the Saturday night popular-priced performance. Claudia Muzio will present her incomparable characterization of the role of Violetta, with Charles Hackett as Alfredo and Augusto Beuf as the father, Roberto Moranzoni will conduct.

The fourth week of opera opens Monday evening, November 23, with the season's second performance of Samson and Delilah. Madame Maria Olszewska will be singing the role of Delilah for the first time in America. Otherwise, the cast is unchanged to include Charles Marshall as Samson, Cesare Formichi as the High Priest of Dagon, Chase Baromeo as the Old Hebrew and Sergio Benoni as Abimelech. Emil Cooper will conduct.

On Tuesday evening will be given La Boheme with an unchanged cast which includes Claudia Muzio as Mimì, Marie Buddy as Musette, Jan Klepura as Rudolph, Augusto Beuf as Marcel, Virgilio Lazari as Colline and Salvatore Baccaloni as Schvancard, with Roberto Moranzoni conducting.

BASKETBALL LEAGUES NEW LEGION PLAN

The Athletic Committee of the Cook County Council of the American Legion has authorized the organization of basketball leagues throughout Cook county for all amateur teams interested in playing basketball under recognized authority.

Play will start the second week in December on the ten game schedule in each league after which the semi-finals and the finals will be played by the league winners for the county championship.

There are two divisions of each league, one is the light weight division and the other is the heavy weight division. The weight limit for the light weight teams is 135 pounds. Last year the league consisted of 90 teams and the final games were considered some of the finest in the city of Chicago.

As last year, teams from industrial plants and local athletic clubs will be welcome and any team wishing to enter the league is requested to communicate with R. A. Phillips, 209 North LaSalle street, or phone Stewart 2836 after 6 p. m. As soon as sufficient applications have been received the teams will be notified in what league they are to play and will be the responsible party to contract for the details of that league.

Sweetpea's Origin

The sweetpea is a native of the island of Sicily, and was first mentioned in 1565 by an Italian monk, who sent seeds to England and Holland. The seeds of sweetpeas became an article of commerce as early as 1724.

The performance for Wednesday evening will be Tristan and Isolde with Frida Leider as Isolde, Maria Olszewska as Brangaene, Paul Alt-house as Tristan, Rudolf Bockelmann as Kurvenal and Alexander Kipnis as King Marke. Egon Pollak will conduct.

The matinee bill for Saturday, November 28, will be the season's third performance of Mozart's The Magic Flute, with the same artists singing the principal roles as in the first two performances. They include Noel Eddie, Maria Rajdl, Frida Leider, Thelma Turner, Maria Olszewska, Helen Ornstein, Paolo Marion, Theodore Ritch, Octave Dna, Giuseppe Cavadore, Rudolf Bockelmann, Edmund Habich, Alexander Kipnis, Edouard Cotreuil and Antonio Niedlich. Egon Pollak will conduct.

Rehearsals of Wagner's Parsifal are in full swing and this work will be brought to production at an early date.

TO ORGANIZE 'VOLUNTEERS' IN 'CRUSADE'

Plan Unity of Consumers in Every Northwest City and Town

Announcement of a new move by field representatives of the Main Street Crusade has recently been made by Wm. F. Dombrow and Fred J. Buenger.

The new unit to be assembled for action in the Crusade against causes of depression, will be known as the Main Street Crusade Volunteers. Now, however, considerable time will be given to the education of the housewife and the men and women of the work-a-day world in the work of the Main Street Crusade.

Many letters have been received at the Crusade offices, from the men and women who regularly listen to Mr. Caslow's broadcasts, asking how they can be of service in this great work. A volunteer group will be formed in every one of the northwest suburban towns.

Messrs. Buenger and Dombrow want to make it clear to all concerned that volunteer workers will not be requested to make money contributions to the Main Street Crusade under any circumstances, nor for any reason.

"Every Volunteer can be of great service to his or her community and every right thinking American citizen should be a volunteer. Every man, woman and child who appreciates being an American citizen and as such, a free man or woman, should be doing his or her bit to rid the nation of this depression and that system of business which brings it about."

"Every housewife who is interested in having her husband put back on a full time job should interest herself in the Crusade work and join the ranks of the Volunteers," reads the announcement.

Mr. George Gould of Des Plaines, under the supervision of the Main Street Crusade field men will direct the work of the Volunteers. Every man or woman who wishes to volunteer in this work will write Mr. Gould at 1068 Des Plaines avenue, Des Plaines, Ill.

He will then notify you of the time and place of a meeting to be held for the purpose of explaining the plans and intentions of the Volunteers.

CHICAGO IS NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

Mr. Miller touched lightly upon county affairs, painting a rosy picture of the future when depression shall end, taxes shall be paid and the world get back to normal. He estimated that the delay in the reassessment and collection of taxes will have cost the taxing bodies $50,000,000 before they get back upon an even footing. If the 1928 and 1929 tax bills were presented in the good time of those years they would have been paid. The man or woman today who has a job, no matter what salary, should consider himself fortunate and all should be ready to lend a helping hand to those who need it. He urged his hearers to be optimistic about community life, say good things about one's town and neighbors; boost Mt. Prospect and in time it will become as good and as important as Oak Park, his own home town.

The audience was favored with special entertainment on the part of Judge F. L. H. Luaders whose sleight of hand tricks delighted all. Mrs. Rosina Kent gave two solos, which are always enjoyed.

FIRST THURSDAY IS INDEPENDENT LEAGUE NIGHT

Plan Surprise Feature for Dec. 3; Receive New Members

At the last regular meeting of the Independent League of Mount Prospect held on Thursday evening, November 12, a large number of members attended. Several new members were also received, and welcomed by President James Walsh.

A very lively meeting was conducted in which many pertinent subjects of interest to local citizens were discussed. After the business meeting, delicious sandwiches and hot coffee were served to everyone's pleasure.

A piece of business which should be noted by all members and others interested in the league is the change of the meeting date. Heretofore the monthly meeting has been held on the third Friday of each month. The advisability for changing this date was thoroughly discussed, and the consensus of the opinion of those present was that the first Thursday of the month will be a more opportune time. In due form, it was moved, seconded and unanimously voted, that the first Thursday of each month be officially adopted as the meeting date. Therefore, the next regular meeting will be held Thursday, December 3rd. Regular notices will be mailed to all members.

"We are planning a unique idea for this meeting," Mr. Walsh hinted. "Everybody is invited to attend and enjoy the evening with us. It is something never attempted before in Mt. Prospect."

WHEELING NEWS

Sixteen members of Wheeling Camp R. N. A., enjoyed a visit to Deerfield Camp last Thursday evening. It was Friend's Night at Deerfield Camp and 4 members of Wheeling Camp held stations, as did also, members of 6 other neighboring camps. Three candidates were received into the Deerfield Camp membership. The meeting proved very interesting and helpful. The deputy of Lake county gave some instruction regarding several changes in the ritualistic work. She also gave numerous statements regarding the stability of the society as an insurance organization, among which she stated that at a recent audit, the Royal Neighbors were found to be 104 per cent solvent which is considered exceptional for any business especially in light of the present financial situation. After the meeting the hostess camp served refreshments to all.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Members please note the time as the meeting will start promptly at 7:30 sharp and will be short and snappy and will be held at the Community hall.

HOME HYGIENE CLASS NEWS

Last Friday the attendance was perfect. The lesson was a discussion about communicable diseases and immunization. Also a discussion on points of interest noticed on the Armistice Day tour thru the County Hospital Children's building.

The class held Wednesday was small in numbers as all the students from Mt. Prospect school district 57 were absent because of their achievement club meeting also. Adele Busse was absent because of sickness, also Ruth Duwe and A. Kopecky were absent. An open discussion on indications of sicknesses and a review of various methods of taking temperatures, pulse and respiration and the significance and importance of pain was the lesson of the afternoon.

MT. PROSPECT COMMUNITY BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Ward Jenks, Minister. Bible school, 10 a. m. In Public school building; morning worship, 11 a. m. in Community hall.

Last Sunday's congregation was very much pleased with the Thanksgiving message in song which was so well rendered by the Junior chorus under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Strom and Mrs. Jones.

"Upon this rock I will build my church" was the theme around which the pastor built a helpful sermon. Next Sunday the subject of the message will be "The Spirit of Thanksgiving."

In a very fitting and inspirational service four new members were welcomed into the church last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holmboe, Mrs. Jessie Babb, and Miss Ada Ward were those who received the right hand of fellowship.

Don't forget the Food and Apron sale which will be conducted on Saturday afternoon in Community hall, the sale will begin at two o'clock.

Significance of Prefixes
"Von" and "van" were originally used in German and Dutch names respectively merely as prepositions literally meaning of or from. Paul von Hindenburg literally means Paul of Hindenburg and Martin van Buren means Martin of Buren. The particles are now regarded as component parts of modern surnames and have little significance in most cases.

Local Veterans Aid Drive for Cash Payment

As a part of the nationwide movement sponsored by national headquarters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, members of Prospect Post No. 1337 of Mt. Prospect are circulating petitions urging congress to support proposed legislation authorizing immediate cash payment of adjusted service certificates, according to Commander Pohlmann, in a statement made public today.

"These petitions, with a potential signature strength of twelve million names, are being sent to each member of our organization with the request that they be circulated among friends and acquaintances for their signatures as evidence of their favorable support on this question."

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is the pioneer organization among veteran groups on record in favor of immediate cash payment of the world war adjusted service certificates declared Commander Pohlmann. "We believe payment of these certificates will make possible the biggest step congress can take towards alleviating present distress among the unemployed and business depression in general.

"We feel that the apportionment of these funds throughout the entire country will create a purchasing power that will in itself constitute a benefit to individual and industrial welfare as well.

"As Commander of Prospect Post No. 1337 Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, I am calling upon all members of our organization to give these petitions their immediate attention. These petitions have been received by our individual members as an insert in their copies of the November number of Foreign Service, the official publication of our organization. Prompt action will serve to acquaint our congressmen and senators with the widespread support this cause is accorded by the folks "voters" at home.

MERRILL SCHOOL, DISTRICT 20

On November 24, a dance will be given at the beautiful Olympic Golf club on Dundee road west of Wheeling for the benefit of Merrill school district 20. All are welcome. Ladies 25 cents; gents, 75 cents.

ORCHARD PLACE SCHOOL

Editor, Lois Zeimet

Our annual evening Achievement program was held Nov. 6. The meeting was a success and we had such a large attendance that some of the people stood out in the hall. The following program was rendered:

Song by all.
Recitation, "Little Orphan Annie" by Elizabeth Rien.
Ukelele Selections, "My Bonnie" and "Old Black Joe."
Project Story — Clarence Landmeier.

Dialogue—Geography class.
Song, "Reuben and Rachel" by Margaret Collison and Vivian Smetana.
Hobby Horse drill by grades 1-2.
Project story by Elizabeth Rien.
Song by Grades 1, 2, 3, 4.
Harmonica selections.

A Thanksgiving Fable—Lois Collison.
Wand Drill—Upper Grades.
Topsy Turvy Dance—4th grade girls.

Selections by Miss Dreyer and Mrs. Trier.
Tom Thumb wedding.
Autumn song — Upper grade girls.

Everyone enjoyed the program and we were glad to hear that. We are going to have the Pimp-plum children come to our school. Mildred and Richard Wilke moved away; now we have 35 pupils.

We made paper flowers for the ushers and flower girl in our program.
We all thanked the directors for the maps and globe, they bought for us.

The 7th and 8th grade girls are having cooking for a project. Mrs. Goede, our teacher, teaches us. We meet at Mrs. Goede's house once a month. We made cocoa, potato croquettes, learned how to set the table properly and how to serve.

The 1, 2, 3, 4 grades made vegetable men and fruit men for the curtains.
The 5, 6, 7, 8 grade made turkeys for the windows.

ELK GROVE SCHOOL

DISTRICT 59

Editor, Harold Schoo

The girls of the higher room made some Dutch, Indian, and Puritan posters.

We had some arithmetic tests. Wesley Landmeier was the only one who had 100 per cent.

We are going to have two candy machines installed and the Achievement club is going to get 25 per cent of each candy machine.

We also have new shades.
Mr. Aken visited us last week and brought a Cook county map.
The nurse visited our school last week and brought our new health record. Raymond Pomplum is highest in the health record.

We have sent for a boys football and some new books.
Don't forget our Achievement meeting, Nov. 24, and our dance Dec. 3. Our Achievement program is to be different this year. We are going to have a Thanksgiving opera called "Bobby Brewster's Rooster." Harold Schoo is Bobby Brewster.

See America's greatest exposition of fine poultry. Turkeys, chickens, bantams, ducks, geese, pigeons, rabbits. Free moving pictures and lectures afternoons and nights. Bring the children to see the great Pet Show: dogs, cats, birds, fish, ponies. The novel bantam village will delight old and young alike. Hundreds of baby chicks on display. Two Shetland ponies will be given away to children during the show. Really two big shows for the price of one. Admission 30 cents; children 15 cents. At the Coliseum, Wabash Avenue and 15th St.

Remember the Date, Dec. 1 to 6.

SCHILLER PARK SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES

By H. J. Jacoby
National Education week was observed at the Schiller Park school last week.

A National program was for United States and the schools all over the United States followed it. The teachers made a special effort to demonstrate their pupils' ability.

There was a large assembly of parents at the school on visiting day, last Thursday, which showed that they are taking a keen interest in the education of the younger generation. They visited various rooms to view exhibits of children's work, and to consult with the teachers. It was gratifyingly evident that a higher standard exists than in previous years.

The Lincoln School Achievement club gave an entertainment Friday evening at the Schiller Park School assembly rooms, to a capacity house. Mr. Clarence Callahan, the new member of the Board of Education sang two pleasing numbers, "On the Road to Mandalay" and "Why Don't You Ask Me" and made a great hit.

The school was shocked to hear of the death of Edward Sadowski, who graduated last June.

Eloquent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held, was borne by his many classmates present at the services held in St. Beatrice church. And a large number of colleagues followed to unite at the cemetery in the short service at the graveside. Our school sent a lovely floral tribute.

Tuesday, Nov. 17, a benefit program was given by 200 children. Proceeds will be donated to the poor.

FEEHANVILLE SCHOOL
DISTRICT 26

Editor, Harry Van Dyke
Jeannette Havena celebrated her ninth birthday, Nov. 6.

Mary Jane Koisgart was absent Monday and Friday.
Aldrich Sloat visited us Tuesday.

The Mannheim School will give an Achievement display and dance at the school Saturday, Nov. 21. Admission, 25 cents.

COMING EVENTS
BAZAAR: CARNIVAL: DANCE!

River Road School, Dist. 78, Friday evening, Nov. 20, starting at 7:45 p. m. Dance at 9 p. m. Four piece orchestra. Dance 25 cents from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Come and see Fifi the living wonder who eats, sleeps and talks under water.

BENEFIT DANCE
The American Legion of Paaltine will sponsor a dance at Seip's hall, Paaltine, Wednesday, Nov. 25.

It will be a strictly Old Time Dance and the proceeds will be given to the local relief fund.

TRAP SHOOTING
Turkeys, Ducks, Geese
A trap shoot will be held Sunday, Nov. 22, commencing at 12 o'clock at the John Pingel farm on Higgins road. Shoots will be continued every Sunday thereafter.

DANCE
A dance will be given at Fred Berlin's place, Quentin Corners, Saturday, Nov. 21.

Buffalo Bill's Ancestry
According to the biography of Buffalo Bill compiled by his sister, Mrs. Helen Cody Wetmore, the family is descended from Milesius, a king of Spain, whose three sons founded the first dynasty in Ireland. The Cody family is descended through the son Heremon. Several members of the family emigrated to America in 1757 and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia. Buffalo Bill was born in Scott county, Iowa.

Preference
A famous New York clergyman, whose hair is very kinky, was introduced by a witty bald-headed toastmaster as follows: "This is the well-known preacher with the crocheted hair." To which the preacher replied: "I would rather have hair that is crocheted than hair that is nit."—Vancouver Province.

Here and There in Division 3

Wheeling

Dist. 21—One of the best art exhibits in this division was found in Room 4, upper grades, here were also found some excellent health posters and a splendid reading project. The orchestra in this school is making good and we expect to hear them at our achievement meeting on the 23rd of this month.

In Room 2 was found another good health poster and other evidence that the teacher visited the class rooms at the Northbrook teachers' meeting.

Room 3 was found a very interesting and new idea, the illustration of Songs of Long Ago, in a very artistic manner. Some of the illustrations were: "The Old Oaken Bucket," "Old Folks at Home," "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Home Sweet Home," etc.

A book chart also adorned the wall showing the names of the pupil and books read.

In Room One the teacher was drilling on reading and there were some good arithmetic papers on the wall, from the second grade. This school, like Mt. Prospect school, is crowded.

Grove School

Dist. 27—In Room 2 there were several posters on the wall and some fine work on an Indian project.

The pupils in all grades were practicing their play, "Cinderella" for their achievement meeting on the 20th of this month. Several fine posters in "Good English" adorned the walls and the teacher is much interested in silent reading and so are the pupils.

This room boasts the only Hawaiian guitar octet in the division and you will hear them at the achievement meeting. This is practically a new two-room school on Dundee Road west of Sky Harbor; and the directors, the P. T. A. and people in the district and the contractor who did the work are to be highly complimented for what they have done for their children in this district.

Maine Center

Dist. 64½—In the primary room we found some excellent posters and reading charts, and everyone is interested in his work.

The upper grades' busy preparing their achievement program for Nov. 30. The walls are adorned with some excellent drawings and posters that portray the subjects studied this month. Everybody busy.

Golf School

Dist. 67—In the upper grades is found a large cutout map of Europe and the pupils were working up the project, on this map as they study the different countries and they make the mountains out of clay, they plant the different kind of trees, adorn their branches with the fruits they yield, one small wooden castle on the Rhine was carved out of wood and came from Germany; the dikes in Holland, the dutch windmills, the dairy industry illustrated, the mines along the frontiers of France, the Alps, and in fact every practical thing that can be worked out is being done on this project. The map is about eight feet by seven feet.

In the primary room was an Indian project that was very interesting and instructive. The pupils were practicing some Thanksgiving songs.

Sunset Ridge

Dist. 29—This school is much different because of the board adopting the Winnetka System Course of study. They will give a most interesting Greek pageant at their achievement meeting on Nov. 23. It will be a wonderful program.

The state superintendent of schools will probably be present for a few minutes that evening. The champion acre corn contestant is from this district in Division Three, Louis Stoffregen is his name.

American Honor Education

Last Sunday two splendid programs in honor of "American Education Sunday" were held at the Northbrook Presbyterian church. Mr. Norman E. Watson, principal of Northbrook school, gave an excellent address on "What the Public Schools are Helping America to Achieve Thru Ideals of Character and Home Life." A symposium on this general subject was presented in the evening.

Strong School

Strong school in Wheeling township. Mary Purcell, teacher, presented a very praiseworthy program Friday evening, the 13th, as follows:

Welcome—Loretta Newford.
Howdy Folks—Class.
Songs—Class.
Doctor Health—Class.
Piano selection—Evelyn Mair-boten.

Unique Work Done Here

The superintendent of the C. F. U. Home looks after the care of these boys and girls, numbering over 100, as carefully as if they were his own, and no man has a deeper sympathy for them than he. He labors in every way to give these orphan boys and girls the best opportunity possible for an education, because he knows that it's the only lasting thing to make good citizens, useful citizens, loyal and patriotic to our country and our flag.

Therefore he has surrounded them with practically every educational advantage, many of them not found in other elementary schools in the division such as: Music—vocal and instrumental, band, orchestra, etc.; manual training, art, physical education, a gym, uniforms for band, baseball, basketball, wonderful playground and playground equipment, and soon some portable bleacher seats will be put on each side of the baseball backstop for the convenience of pupils and visitors.

They also have an excellent teaching force who live within the grounds the year round and they are in personal contact with the pupils all the year. Since this arrangement has been made the pupils in this school have improved 500 per cent in practically everything.

In the primary room was found an honor roll for those making 90 or more in their monthly grades, a sand table, and some excellent drawings by the pupils.

In the intermediate room were found several free hand drawings interpreting poems, and these drawings were excellent.

Maine Center

Dist. 64½—In the primary room we found some excellent posters and reading charts, and everyone is interested in his work.

The upper grades' busy preparing their achievement program for Nov. 30. The walls are adorned with some excellent drawings and posters that portray the subjects studied this month. Everybody busy.

EAST MAINE

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Loeding entertained a large crowd of guests Monday evening, Nov. 9, in honor of Mr. Loeding's birthday anniversary. A jolly time was had.

Miss Mara Geweke is at the Swedish Covenant hospital, in Chicago where she is undergoing observation and treatment. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery and early return to her home.

The William Wilke family were among the guests at a birthday party held at the home of Mrs. Wilke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fiebelwer in Morton Grove Sunday. The occasion was Mr. Fiebelwer's 75th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Oren Jacks and Mrs. Wm. A. Tagtmeier attended a bunco party given by the Palwaukee Women's club Thursday evening and report an enjoyable time.

At their last meeting held Nov. 12, St. Matthews Ladies' Aid set the date for their next bunco party to be Friday evening, Dec. 11. It will be held in the school hall at 8 o'clock as usual.

Several East Mainites attended the golden anniversary celebration of St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran church at Nile, Conn. Sunday, Nov. 15. The celebration also marked the installation and ordination of Rev. O. F. Arndt, St. Paul's new pastor.

The teaching staff of East Maine school, district 63, has been increased to five, a new teacher being added to the Croatian school on Potter road. Increased attendance made the employment of another teacher necessary.

The social evening sponsored by the East Maine Parent-Teachers association held at the school Friday evening, Nov. 13, was very well attended and proved to be quite a success. All available space was utilized bunco tables were in the basement while upstairs were the tables for those interested in cards. Holders of high scores in each game received prizes. Daintily little homemade cupcakes and coffee were served for refreshments and everyone had just the best kind of a time. The next affair to be sponsored by the P. T. A. will be a dance to be held at Croatian Hall, Potter road, Saturday evening, Dec. 12, to which one and all are invited. Tickets may be obtained from any of the members.

The Welcome Park Unterstuetzung Verein gave another of their famous dances at Nieman's Hall, Nile, Saturday evening and as usual a very large attendance graced the affair. The rainy weather had no effect on the spirit of the crowd who continued to make merry until the early hours of the morning. Redhots were served during the course of the evening and much enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Old Reliance, Albert Ahrens, Frank Klein, Chief Kenning and Art Anderson and how the crowd made those fellows sweat. Anyway, everybody had a good time and that's all that matters.

THANKSGIVING

God we thank for everything!
The little bird that sings
The soft, cool summer breeze;
The tall and shady trees,
The clock upon the wall,
The chairs in grandma's hall:
Our fathers and our mothers,

Our foods and things to eat,
Our drink and wholesome meats.
Help us God to grow into Healthy men and women true,
Help us this Thanksgiving Day,
To help each other in every way.

Grace Lemieux, 12 years old, 7th grade, East Maine school.

"Hair of the Dog"

The origin of the expression "the hair of the dog that bit you" is that when a man has had a debauch he is advised to take next morning "a hair of the same dog," i. e., a glass or two of the tipple that caused the trouble, in allusion to an ancient notion that the burn of a hair of a dog is an antidote to its bite.—Washington Star.

Elmyra Schellin Was Charming Autumn Bride

Wedding bells rang gaily forth from St. Matthew's Lutheran church in East Maine, Saturday, Nov. 14, when at 5:30 p. m. Miss Elmyra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schellin, East Maine, became the bride of Mr. John Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lehman of Chicago. Rev. Julius Toepel officiated at the double ring ceremony used to unite the lives of these two popular young people.

With the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played on the organ by Mr. Walter Busse, the two ushers, Alfred Schellin and Wendell Rosenthal led the bridal procession. They were followed by the lovely bridesmaids, Miss Stella Lehman and Miss Esther Sass, Miss Lehman wore a gown of yellow satin, Miss Sass wore green. Both girls wore slippers to match their gowns and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Ida Schellin, the bride's sister was maid of honor. She wore a gown and slippers of blue satin. Her bouquet was tea roses and orchid sweet peas.

Miss Elmyra was a vision of beauty as attired in white bride's satin with long, flowing train, she was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her lace trimmed veil, caught at the back with lilies of the valley, was fashioned in close fitting cap style, accentuating her fair loveliness. Her bouquet consisted of white roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. The groom and his cousin Florey Meyers, the best man, met the bride before the altar which was banked with palms and ferns.

Following the ceremony, Miss Florence Toepel sang, "The Lord is My Shepherd" in her sweet, pleasing manner.

A small reception for immediate families followed at the home of the bride's parents and later in the evening the young couple slipped away to their honeymoon apartment at 6131 Northwest Highway, Norwood Park, where they will make their new home and where the good wishes of their many friends accompany them for a long life of good luck and happiness.

Appeasing the Dead

The expression "to appease his manes" means to do when a person is dead what would have pleased him when he was alive. The spirit or ghost of the dead was called his "manes" by the Romans, and it was supposed never to rest quietly in the grave as long as survivors left its wishes unfulfilled. February 19 was the day when all the living sacrificed to the shades of dead relatives and friends.

Circumventing Colic

A pretty little party from Pittsburgh, who always wears a straight flush and who can't understand the ways of a man with a maid, brings her problem to Oral Hygiene. "My boy friend," she boasts, "is as fine as they come, but whenever he calls he invariably waits 15 minutes before kissing me. Now, what's his system, please?" "Perhaps," grins the editor, "he's learned how long it takes the paint to dry?"—Pathfinder Magazine.

Theatre Notes

"High Stakes," a Tale Of the Lonely Rich

faced ladies who prey upon the loneliness of wealthy men comes to the Pickwick theatre Sunday.

Radio Pictures' "High Stakes" takes this situation and makes of it an exciting, swift melodrama, thrilling yet amusing in the situations it depicts.

Sherman Starred
Lowell Sherman, gay Lothario of many stage and screen successes, is the star-director of this latest pictorial achievement. "High Stakes" follows the countrywide praise lavished on him by critics everywhere for his performance in and direction of "Bachelor Apartment."

The role portrayed by Sherman in "High Stakes" is the same he played some years ago on the stage when "High Stakes" was one of Broadway's outstanding entertainments from the pen of Willard Mack.

"Caught Plastered" at Pickwick Sunday, Full Of Laughs and Tension

It's a Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey comedy, this Radio Pictures' "Caught Plastered," which is at the Pickwick theatre Friday and Saturday.

That is "huf said." However, for the benefit of those who haven't seen these incorrigible laugh kings, the picture not only is funny, but it is funny in an altogether refreshing way.

It combines new laughs and dramatic tension. In between these two extremes are little giggles, big smiles and heart aches.

There is even some slapstick, and plenty of giddy patter. Opposite Wheeler is Dorothy Lee, a combination fittingly called the "Romeo and Juliet of the Comedy World." Wheeler's whimsical love-making and Dorothy's charm are very much in evidence all through the picture.

Action plunges into an absorbing story, strange as that may seem in connection with comedy.

Lionel Barrymore At the McVickers

The thousands of film fans who thrilled to Lionel Barrymore's masterful performance in "Free Soul" will not be surprised at hearing that he has just recently been awarded the Academy of Arts prize for the best male performance of 1931 for his excellent work in that picture. In his latest picture, "The Yellow Ticket," now at McVickers Theatre, Barrymore has imparted all of his genius into his role, that of the relentless and cruel head of the Russian secret police. His performance is realistic and genuine.

Elissa Landi, brilliant star, playing the feminine lead in "The Yellow Ticket," has never appeared so sincere, as in her impersonation of a Russian peasant girl fighting for her happiness against the injuries and cruelty of the ruthless Barrymore.

THEATRE
NEWSJoan Crawford, Clark Gable, Chicago Screen

Joan Crawford and Clark Gable together again!

These two popular stars together for the first time since "Dance of the Vampires" in a glorious, glamorous romance, "Possessed," coming to the Chicago Theater Friday, Nov. 20.

Joan Crawford, at the height of her popularity, as the girl who had youth, beauty, fascination—all that men wanted, she had—and she knew it! "Possessed" gives Miss Crawford the greatest role she has ever had on the screen. She has a role that is particularly suited to her type of character—that of a young and beautiful girl mingling with society—laughing at riches—living gloriously—until she meets her equal.

Clark Gable as a handsome, millionaire who fell in love with this fiery young beauty—pouring his riches on her until she turned on him with such a fury that astounded him.

"Possessed" is the directorial masterpiece of Clarence Brown who made such outstanding hits as "Inspiration," "A Free Soul," "Romance," "Anna Christie" and many others of equal importance.

On the stage Friday, Tom Patricola will head a giant revue called "Novelties of 1931." Patricola, who was the star of innumerable editions of George White's "Scandals" and scores of screen hits, will be here dancing like he never danced before—clowning as only he can clown—and he is more entertaining than ever.

Duke Ellington and Band at Oriental

The hottest, happiest band in all the world is coming back to the Oriental Theater Friday, November 20. Duke Ellington and his New York Harlem Cotton Club Orchestra will be here with an entirely new program—new, weird, happy syncopations that will thrill you to the core.

Duke Ellington and his famous orchestra are back for a fifth record smashing engagement and they're gayer—more jazz-mad than ever. Hear his own interpretations of "Sweet and Lovely," "I'm Keeping Company," "Jungle Fantasy," and those two Ellington favorites—"Mood Indigo" and "Old Man River."

On the screen Friday, James Dunn, star of "Bad Girl," rises to even greater screen heights in "Sob Sister." Featured with Dunn is a charming newcomer to the screen, Linda Watkins. Miss Watkins' performance in "Sob Sister" will rank her as one of the finest actresses on the screen.

James Dunn portrays the role of the star reporter of a conservative newspaper, who falls in love with a girl reporter writing for a rabid tabloid, played by Linda Watkins. The plot takes them through a series of misunderstandings and breathless adventures to a smashing climax.

NILES TWP. SCHOOLS SHOW GOOD PROGRESS

O. F. Aken Tells of Trip Through Three Schools;
Good Work in All

EAST PRAIRIE
Dist. 73.—I found the teachers and pupils making great preparations for their Achievement program to be given Friday evening, November 20.

In room one is the best arranged sand table that I have seen this week; and it's no wonder, for the teacher is noted for her excellent sand table projects. This one represented our first Thanksgiving.

In room two the teacher and pupils are working upon a transportation project. In all the rooms were seen many beautiful and appropriate decorations.

Art was stressed in room three and many drawings of autumn leaves and big red apples were very numerous. The teacher has twenty-six in her sewing class.

Room 4—Physical education is given to the pupils of the upper grades by the principal and the pupils were very busy on a map project. They also are keeping up a real live geography project by pasting clippings from the daily newspapers upon bulletin boards, that relate to the different countries they study.

Manual training is given the boys in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, and they enjoy it very much.

SHARP CORNER
Dist. 68. The school is preparing an excellent program for their achievement meeting Friday evening, Nov. 20.

In the kindergarten room Health was the main project and each pupil had his own toothbrush. They also had a postoffice project.

Room 1—Here was a fine illustration of the leading characters found in the book "Sambo," all cleverly arranged on a table.

Room 2—The teacher and pupils had finished their art project in fruit drawings and are starting their milk project under the cooperation of our efficient nurse, Mrs. Cole.

Room 3—The best transportation project worked out in a practical way was found in this room and it represents the lake front in the vicinity of the Chicago river.

Room 4—A dozen or more plants were found in this room and are real interesting in nature study. The pupils are working upon the following projects: Reading, music, and geography. They boast of having the best harmonica band in Cook county.

Room 5—Current events receives more attention in this room than in any room I have seen this year to date. They have received a medal for the past three years for passing the best test on current events.

This school also has an orchestra composed of pupils in third to eighth grades, and are doing some excellent work. The upper grades have manual training and sewing. There are 22 in the sewing class.

SOUTH NILES CENTER
District 72. Here I found 36 boys and only 16 girls enrolled and all were rehearsing their parts for the achievement program that was to be given Nov. 10. Their program was given in honor of Armistice Day. Fall decorations adorned the walls.

NILES SCHOOL
District 71. This school has increased their enrollment so much that two new teachers were added the first of last month. They are now seven teachers and by next year there will be eight and then there will be only one grade to the teacher and straight grade work will be given.

There are 24 in the sewing class, and the 5, 6, 7, 8 grades are taking manual training. There are 25 entered in orchestra and piano music and are doing well. A class in Home Hygiene is organized under Mrs. Cole. There are 17 girls in the class.

Excellent art work is seen in each room and the scheme of nature study with leaves combined with art is worked out beautifully.

Here in upper grades on display is the finest sewing exhibit found anywhere in the division. Spelling in the upper grades shows the greatest improvement. The November calendars in each room are beautiful.

Good English and book work was recognized in this school and much good resulted. The school also gets out a school paper which is of inestimable value in English expression.

The geography and history in upper grades supplemented with current events and work books are exceptionally good. A new style of seat was found in this room and a new desk for the 7th and 8th grade teachers. These seats are just about the last word in design and comfort for the pupils in 7th grade.

The upper grades make their own arithmetic work books and are proud of them. In fifth grade music and art seemed to receive a great deal of attention plus the other subjects. In the fourth grade and third grade book reports and wood craft was emphasized. In

GLENVIEW

The three months old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stillson, killed in an auto accident last Saturday, was buried Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services at the house were in charge of Rev. Markus Johnson of the Congregational church. We extend sympathy to the parents and family.

The Girl Scout Council will meet in the Civic building Friday night, with Mrs. Anna Kirk acting as chairman, Miss Lillie Palmgren, secretary.

The Northfield Township Civic chorus will give two Christmas festivals in December. The concert for Glenview is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, December 20. The other concert will take place at Northbrook, December 18 in the evening. Tickets for these programs will soon be on sale by the members.

The Methodist church will hold their annual bazaar and supper in the Civic building the week following Thanksgiving.

The following members of the Eastern Star attended "Matrons and Patrons' Night at Wilmette Chapter Monday night, where Mr. Joseph W. Morton served as Chaplain. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Morton, Mr. Arthur Palmgren, Mrs. Alma Toske, Mrs. Mary Ruger, Mrs. John Dwight, Hazel Dwight, Fern Krueger, and the Misses Gladys and Myrtle Melzer.

Glenview Lodge of Masons celebrated their tenth anniversary Wednesday night with an old-time dance at the school house. Many of the Masons and Eastern Stars were there, and a very merry time was had by everybody.

Mr. John Gaeje went on a hunting trip in Central Illinois last week-end.

Mrs. Edith Baird, Mrs. John Clark, and Mrs. Arthur Allen were the committee in charge of the supper at the Congregational Hall last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Melzer spent a few days visiting relatives in Iowa recently.

A large crowd of people were served by the ladies of St. Peter's church in their community hall Wednesday evening, the occasion being "Church Night."

Tuesday night, Nov. 24, there will be staged a charity benefit show, given under the auspices of the American Legion. Proceeds will be turned over to the Northfield Township Charities. Several very interesting features are being provided. Music by the chorus and orchestra of Glenview, two short comedy dramas, and a moving picture are some of the numbers on the program.

The Royal Neighbors held a card and bunco party at the Catholic school hall Thursday night. Many beautiful prizes were offered.

John Tracey and his orchestra furnished the music for the Masonic dance at the school house Wednesday night. Those who attended report a very fine time.

NORTHBROOK

Rev. and Mrs. Roth and Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Highland Park were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Holte Sunday evening.

The Ladies' club of Maple school held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 11. After the usual order of business bunco was enjoyed by the ladies. Mesdames Lueth and Wandroick served a light luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meier entertained their Saturday evening card club at their home Saturday, Nov. 14.

The life of Henry Schaeffer came to an abrupt end Saturday afternoon, Nov. 14. Funeral was held Tuesday at St. Peter's church. Rev. Bizer officiating. Burial at Ridgewood cemetery.

The members and friends of the Northbrook Presbyterian church will unite with St. Peter's church in a Thanksgiving service Thursday, Nov. 26, at the Evan. church. Rev. Smith will give the address. Services will commence at nine o'clock.

The Red Jacket eleven from Forest Glen were defeated by the Northbrook C's in a fast football game Sunday afternoon. An exceptionally large crowd witnessed the game.

The Northbrook police invite all their friends to their annual dance to be held in the beautiful ballroom of the Sky Harbor airport Wednesday evening, Nov. 25. Good music has been secured for this Thanksgiving Eve party.

Messrs Harold Smith and Frank McLachlan spent a few days seeing the beautiful city of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Scout Woodrow Wilson of Troop 6 of Northbrook has been appointed by the North Shore Area council as caretaker for their cabin in the Forest Preserve. Scout Wilson will stay in the cabin from Friday night until Sunday morning every week-end. It will be his duty to check the troops in and out. While at camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan this summer Woodrow became a member of the Order of the Red Arrow. It is a very high honor to be a member of this order for a Scout must rank high in all tests and discipline.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Detman entertained several relatives and friends Sunday evening, Nov. 15.

The second grade each pupil possessed several courtesy keys, they also had made an oak leaf spelling book, and some Indian drawings by them were excellent. The first grade had made some excellent posters and some pretty drawings.

A Field museum curator says that sandals were known in Egypt about 3500 B. C. but it was 2000 years after that before the general public of Egypt wore them regularly.

The Smithsonian institution says: "In the eastern Belgian Congo tribes, particularly the Batela, have evolved a system of telegraphy through use of a wooden drum, the system of signals approaching that of a code. The drum vibrations are not articulated as in human speech; rather the message is recognized through intensity of volume, rhythm, kind of drum used, time of day, etc. In a jungle environment much information may thus be signaled."

When Snakes Shed Skins
Snakes grow fastest in warm weather and the more they grow the sooner they shed their skins. During the process, the skin over the eye is shed also, and the snakes are blind for a day or two before they extricate themselves from the old skin. Shedding is a natural process not governed by "dog days," except that is the period when they are most active.

NILES CENTER

Mr. Jack Schmidt and wife of 8949 Cicero avenue, have sublet their flat for the winter and will go to their farm in southern Indiana. Mr. Schmidt has the golf course concessions at the Northbrook, Edgebrook and Palos Park Golf grounds.

Miss Catherine Ottlinger, who went to Hollywood this summer for a screen test, has decided she will continue to do the same work she learned while at home. She would have to reduce her weight to such an extent, to be eligible to appear on the screen that this might endanger her health.

She will likely spend the winter in California before coming east.

Mrs. Nora Stahmer of Park Ridge called on Miss Alma Klehm, Sunday.

The card party sponsored by the Niles Center Woman's club and arranged by Mrs. Oscar Wenzel and Mrs. Ferd. C. Baumann was attended by about 200 persons Friday evening in the National bank club rooms.

The choral group of Niles Center people, who love to sing and are meeting every Sunday at 3 p. m., in the Municipal building for practice in singing the Messiah, are entering into it with heart and soul. People a block away look about wonderingly when the harmonious volume of voices carries out of the building and above street noises.

Mrs. Sophie Pries of Des Plaines visited at the W. L. Wolters home Wednesday. Friday evening Mrs. A. Beisse and Miss G. Beisse from Lawrence, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. O. Reets of Chicago; Mrs. R. J. Kruse, Miss Viola Kruse, Miss Elsie Stielow and Mrs. H. A. Renke at supper.

Mrs. Anna Schmidt, who was very ill is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Renke entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noetzel and son, and Mrs. Lucille of Wilmette; Mrs. Lucille Little and children, Mr. Adam Horner, Mr. Carl Lange and Miss Elsie Stielow at dinner Saturday evening in honor of their son, Milton's birthday.

Mrs. Albert Ruchmann was hostess at a one o'clock luncheon Monday to fifteen ladies in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Julius Stief of Oakton street who had a paralytic stroke a week ago is somewhat better, we are glad to say.

The Ladies' Aid meeting will be held December 13 instead of the 20th and the birthday social will be Dec. 16 instead of 23rd, due to the Christmas holidays.

ST. PETER'S EVANGELICAL CHURCH
Oakton St. at Laramie Ave.
Paul Emmanuel Winger, Pastor
Sunday Bible School, 9:00 a. m.
"Undershepherd Service," 10:00 a. m.

German Worship, 11:15 a. m.
Sunday marks the end of the old church year. The service will be in charge of the Brotherhood who will conduct what is known as the "Undershepherd Service." It is to be in recognition of the minister's work or the holy vocation.

Sunday, Nov. 22, at 7:45 p. m. the choir will render its first concert of the fall season. Miss Mildred Tess has chosen a wide variety of numbers. Concerts such as these are offered for several reasons one of which is that it is conducive to more wholesome culture and Christian character. Good music like good companions is indispensable for the better qualities of life to develop. And it will be good music.

Nov. 23 the committee to conduct the every member canvass will meet at 8:00 p. m. to consider well all the details of the canvass.

Thanksgiving Day at 10 the Rev. William C. Krause of the Ev. Home (Children and Aged at Bensenville) will speak. The offering will go to the home. A cordial invitation is extended to Niles Centers to give thanks to Almighty God with us on that occasion.

Nov. 29, is the first Advent Sunday. The Brotherhood will partake of Holy Communion as a body. Throughout the Evangelical Synod the Lord's table en-corpore. The every member canvassers will be commissioned at this service. No German service that day. A cordial invitation is extended to our communicants to commune with the Brotherhood.

Dec. 6 we will observe "Universal Bible Sunday" when the importance of searching in the Bible will be stressed.

Into the Kingdom of Christ was received last week little Fred Charles Karsten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Karsten of Morton Grove. Sponsors are Fred Karsten, Charles Ahrens, Mrs. Frieda Hanich.

Earth as Seen From Above
The following is a quotation from Professor Piccard's story of his trip to the stratosphere: "At an altitude of 16,000 meters the earth is a marvelous sight. Yet it is terrifying. As we rose, the earth seemed at times like a huge disk, with an upturned edge, rather than the globe it is. The bluish mist of the atmosphere grew red-tinted and the earth seemed to go into a copper-colored cloud, and then all disappeared in a haze."

DRIVERS WE HATE TO MEET

The practical joker who superinduces heart failure when he dashes madly toward a stoplight and then stops within an inch of pedestrians.

Golden Jubilee at St. Pauls

Sunday was a gala day for members of St. Paul's church and one long to be remembered as it was a double celebration, the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the church and the installation of the new pastor, Rev. Arndt.

The morning service was in German and conducted by Rev. Lange of Summit, Ill. Rev. Lange was confirmed by Rev. F. Detzer in 1892. St. Paul's choir sang a beautiful song.

At the afternoon service, the church was crowded to the doors and more than 200 were unable to get anywhere near the doors. The Wilmette choir and the St. Paul's choir rendered selections. The speakers for the services were Rev. Meyer of Wilmette and Rev. Werfelmann of Glenview. There were twelve visiting pastors. In this service Rev. Arndt was installed by Rev. Werfelmann. The collection taken in this service will be given to the Missions.

The speaker for the evening service was Rev. Steinhoff of Chicago. The Symphony choir of Chicago sang two beautiful selections. The collection taken in this service will be given to the Children's Charitable institution at Addison, Ill.

The altar space of the church was decorated with palms and fifty large chrysanthemums placed in three baskets. Vases of smaller chrysanthemums stood on the altar. Suspended across the arch was a large wreath with gold leaves and a large golden "50" in the center. The flowers were divided among the sick of the congregation. Mrs. Detzer, Mr. William Godemann (the only living founder of the church) and a basket of flowers was placed upon the grave of our beloved pastor Detzer.

Dinner and supper were served in the assembly room by the Ladies' Aid. The room was beautifully decorated with oak leaves and gold and light brown moss; the table decorations were carried out in the same colors. The meals were delicious and there was plenty of everything, about 200 were served at dinner time, while at supper 300 or more were served. The food which was left, was taken to the orphan home at Addison, Monday, for which the superintendent writes very thankful. The Ladies' Aid wishes to thank all who donated towards the meals to help make them such a complete success.

The men who gave so much of their time in taking down the old barns and fixing up the grounds around the church and parsonage deserve a lot of thanks.

"Mammy Trees" Protected
Seed trees left by a large lumber company operating in Arkansas and Louisiana have been dubbed "mammy trees" by negro cubbers, who zealously guard against cutting them down. Several large trees previously marked with a distinguished white streak are left on each acre to assure the seeding in of a new crop of young trees, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

The drum vibrations are not articulated as in human speech; rather the message is recognized through intensity of volume, rhythm, kind of drum used, time of day, etc. In a jungle environment much information may thus be signaled."

When Snakes Shed Skins
Snakes grow fastest in warm weather and the more they grow the sooner they shed their skins. During the process, the skin over the eye is shed also, and the snakes are blind for a day or two before they extricate themselves from the old skin. Shedding is a natural process not governed by "dog days," except that is the period when they are most active.

Frank White, Local Barber Completes Fifty Years at the Trade

Mr. Frank White, who is one of the oldest business men in Arlington Heights celebrated his 50th anniversary as a barber this month. He has spent 43 years of that fifty in Arlington Heights. Many of our readers can remember when his shop was one of the few in the village and was the mecca for nearly all who were politically inclined. Frank never aspired to public office but in those older days he had a "finger in the pie" in more than one local political campaign. The story of those fifty years is best told by Mr. White in the following interview:

FRANK WHITE

Fifty Years a Barber
On the 5th day of November, 1881, at Geneseo, Illinois, Mr. Frank White learned the Barber Trade under the instruction of a German barber by the name of Henry Postal. Mr. White was in business there for seven years. In the year of 1888, forty-three years ago, Mr. White came to Arlington Heights, where he opened up a Barber Shop which today is the 4th oldest established business in the village. Klehm's Nurseries and Mr. Hartman's Shoe Store. Barber shops are the only present barber houses established prior to 1888.

Few Changes in Fifty Years
Mr. White says there have been few changes in Barber Tools in the last fifty years. The straight blade razor is used by all Barbers as in the old days, but there is some improvement in the handle. Safety razors are only used in private homes. Speaking of hair clippers, in the old days most of the barbers used the wooden handle clipper, similar to sheep shears. It required both hands to operate them. The Brown & Sharp Clipper, came on the market in the year of 1880 and 1881. This clipper was too expensive for the small barber shops. Several years later, the Electric Hair Clipper was perfected which saves time and labor and is really the only modern tool in use today. Speaking of styles of hair cutting. Years ago, young men, and especially college students, wore long hair, slightly trimmed on the sides and back, and the neck was shaved square. It was called the "Foot Ball Trim." No clippers were used in cutting elderly men's hair. Several years later, the Newport Style became a fad among many of the college students. It was a very becoming style for most heads of hair. The next style of hair cutting that was worn a good many years by Professors and College students, was called the "pompadour." James Corbett, the pugilist appeared in public with this style of hair cut, so it became a fad among the young men. A few years ago, the baseball fans appeared in public with a style called "the tank hair cut." It is still universal among the young men and is more of a throw back, than a pompadour style cut, as worn in the old days. Through the years of experience in hair cutting, Barber White has found that a style known as "the just right hair cut," has proved most satisfactory to his customers.

Few may know that women wore short hair, fifty years ago. Yes, a good many women in the professional line, and especially those that had curly hair had it slightly trimmed, but it never became a style of fad, as it is cut today, with a close shingle or feather edge. In those days, young girls wore the Buster Brown hair cut.

In learning the trade 50 years ago one was instructed to dye a mustache or a head of hair or to renovate and dye ladies hair,

Butterfly and Shell Exhibit Extraordinary

Mention should be made of the unusual Butterfly and Shell exhibit recently held at the Methodist church, given by Mr. Henry McElhose.

Mr. McElhose is a genius in this work and the specimens, as a whole, represent over 40 years of collections. The magnitude of the display was a surprise. It has been stated that the collection is the largest in the country.

An unusual specimen was the butterfly resembling an oak leaf. The shells were also rare and most interesting.

The craftsmanship and skill displayed in the lamp shades, trays, pictures, etc., was indeed wonderful. The exhibit was sponsored by the Gleaners circle.

PLENTY OF TURKEYS, GEESE DUCKS, CHICKENS

switches which were popular in the old days. Modern beauty parlors have largely relieved the barber of such duties today.

Mr. White has instructed several young men in the Barber Trade. He recalls two in this locality making a success as business men in their profession. Mr. Fred Kuhn at Woodstock, Illinois also Mr. Herman Faelt at Des Plaines, Illinois. They became skilled workmen in the barber trade.

Mr. White has shared the acquaintance of many prominent outstanding political men in Wheeling and Elk Grove townships.

Mr. White recalls and has the first razor with which he learned the trade. It is the old original Pipe Razor Brand. Such razors are rare. It is a keepsake which recalls to his mind the shaving of his first customer fifty years ago.

Many customers who patronized Mr. White in 1888, are still his customers today, which is itself evidence that his work has at all times been of a most satisfactory character. Mr. White is to be congratulated on his long and successful career in the barber business.

HERALD'S ALL-CONFERENCE FOOTBALL SELECTIONS

First Team	Second Team	Third Team
Left Tackle Jenrich (Ant.)	Plagge (Barr.)	Hendren (Pal.)
Left Guard Volino (Lib.)	Cannon (Warren)	C. Kuhlman (Barr.)
Center Browning (Lib.)	Walsh (Ant.)	McCarthy (Ley.)
Right Guard Banas (Ley.)	Sherry (Ley.)	Tonning (Bens.) Capt.
Right Tackle Lemko (Arl.)	Stickles (Lib.)	Rasmussen (Ley.)
Right End Hasz (Arl.)	King (Ant.)	Garbisch (Barr.)
Quarterback Burrill (Ley.)	Thorpe (Barr.)	Brogan (Ant.)
Left Half Murphy (Lib.) Capt.	Koelling (Arl.)	Hook (Warr.)
Right Half McNeil (Ant.)	Slusser (Lib.)	Fischer (Bens.)
Fullback Castle (Ley.)	Meyer (Pal.)	Catlow (Barr.)

Honorable Mention (Barr.): Strang (Ant.)
(Pal.): Wilke (Arl.)
(Ley.): Center—Hudson (Lib.)
(Warren): Quarter—Smith (Pal.); Portegys (Warr.)
(Ant.): Half—Kuelman (Ant.); Daum (Barr.); Lieke and Lavois (Ley.)
(Arl.): Fullback—Riley (Antioch).

Castle makes an ideal Fullback. An excellent blocker, a vicious tackler and being just about the best plunger in the conference he can't be kept off. Meyer was just about as adept but the vote of the coaches kept him off.

Murphy of Libertyville is named Captain of the mythical team. He has been for four years an outstanding back, and this year we believe him to be the best in the conference. He can do about anything a good half back should do. McNeil gets the next call. He, too, has been an outstanding man for four years, and earns his spurs by dint of four years of excellent play.

Any all conference team without Burnett would be a foolish one. He has played everything out center for Coach Martin. A coach's dream would be that of eleven men like him. Enough said. Lemke is about the best guard in the conference but was moved to tackle to make room for two excellent guards whose physical makeup precludes their possibility of playing the tackle position. Someone had to move. Being the more rangy Lemke was shifted. No team has stopped him this year, and Arlington's captain will be remembered for a long time as the best lineman in the history of football at the home of the Cardinal.

Banas and Volino are ideally built for guards. Short, heavy and exceptionally fast, there is no question of their being the two next best guards in the conference.

Hasz gets the call with Burnett at end. Outside of Burnett, when he plays end, Hasz has been the best wing man in the League. In two years of play he has yet to be boxed in on a play and this year with Lemke was responsible for absolutely no gaining by any team over the right side of Arlington's line. He, too, was a good blocker and an excellent pass receiver, and was always down under punts.

Jenrich gets an almost unanimous call by the coaches for the other tackle position. Big, fast, and a smart player, he deserves his mention. Browning, too, gets an almost unanimous bid. He was moved to center the position he held down so well last year. These two veteran linemen have long been mainstays on their respective teams and have been immensely valuable to their squads.

Walsh, McCarthy and Tanning are three valuable centers it was hard to keep off but their play was slightly below that of the other first team men. Cannon of Warren and Stickles of Libertyville had close calls for a first team berth but could hardly make the rifle. Cannon had not been moved to a backfield position would no doubt have been hard to keep off his old position at guard.

King, Johnson, and Fish are excellent ends but hardly get the nomination. Brogan, Plagge, Slusser, Sherry, Catlow, Hook and all the rest are a parade of excellent players, but not quite the peers of the first eleven.

So again with these nominations we close this year's football season in the Northwest Conference. Some will be disappointed—some pleased. We have made no attempt to do either. We do hope these choices are fair and believe them to be so. Anyway, save your bouquets, or what have you. If anyone can show us—the various coaches—how any one of these first team men can be kept off, will pass the job over to him for the next year. Adios!

Christmas Seals To Be Sold Beginning Nov. 27

The 25th annual sale of Christmas Seals and Health Bonds will begin the day after Thanksgiving, Nov. 27, according to Mr. William C. Bockmeyer, chairman of the Arlington Heights Public Health Committee.

If bought in Arlington Heights, proceeds from the purchase of these seals and bonds go toward the support of the Community nurse, and the Infant Welfare in Arlington Heights.

CATHOLIC YOUTH BOXING QUARTER FINALS COMMENCE

Chicago — With the Catholic Youth Organization's monster amateur boxing tournament rapidly approaching the quarter-finals stage, wide-spread interest is being occasioned by the announcement made by Rev. Gerald P. Scanlan, director of the organization, that the winners in the tourney will be given opportunity to try out for the 1932 Olympic games.

"We have uncovered some remarkable boxing talent in the six counties of Cook, Lake, Will, DuPage, Grundy, and Kane, from which 1612 boys, representing 403 parishes in the archdiocese, have been entered," Father Scanlan revealed.

"These youngsters are now competing in almost nightly eliminations, and will soon be ready for the district quarter finals, which will narrow the field down to 32 boys, or eight to a district."

In turn, these 32 will be reduced to eight boxers, who will be the ones to emerge victorious from the finals and semi-finals winding up the tournament in the Chicago Stadium on the night of December 4. Every indication points to a sell-out for this event. The advance sale of tickets has been under way for some time now, and I would suggest that all wishing to see the climax of this truly spectacular contest, get in their applications at once to avoid disappointment."

The 1932 Olympic tryouts will be only part of the rewards to go to the tournament winners, Father Scanlan said. In addition, the boys will be presented with medals which were designed by Sylvio Sylva, personal sculptor to the Pope, and will also be taken on a holiday trip to New York or the west coast, with all expenses paid. The medals, which are the gift of Cardinal Mundelein, are now on the high seas, having been shipped from the Vatican City, November 13. Quarter final bouts still to be staged are as follows: North District at Lovola gym, in Chicago, Nov. 20; West District, at St. Mel's gym, Nov. 27; South District at De LaSalle gym, Nov. 23; Joliet District at the Joliet De LaSalle gym, November 30.

November skies called dull and drear. Don't spread above dull "doings" here.

Miss Frances Horcher is assisting in the south side A. & P. store. Mr. John Hickey has been too ill the past week to go to his city work for the motor company.

Mrs. Raoul Peeter entertained the Sunshine club this week Thursday afternoon at her home on N. Dunton avenue.

Frank Cordes is working with the Arlington Landscape company at Waukegan this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Heiman of North Dunton avenue had as Sunday guests in their home Mr. and Mrs. A. Henke from Irving Park.

Mrs. Peter Thomas of Kensington road with her children drove to the city Saturday to spend the day with her sister, Mrs. Ceralia and family.

Don't let your car "stall" on account of a weak battery. Have it checked up at Winkelman's Tire & Battery Co.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Saar entertained the Ideal club in their home on Evergreen avenue Saturday evening. Games and refreshments were heartily enjoyed. A pleasing feature of the entertainment was the disposal of a beautiful cut-work scarf made and donated by Mrs. Joseph Kahl of South Mitchell avenue. Miss Bessie Frederick is now the pleased owner.

Spring ducks, geese and chickens at reasonable prices, live or dressed, also delivered. Call Arl. Hts. 7033-M. E. T. Custiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garland visited friends at DesPlaines last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fitzpatrick had for dinner guests in their home Sunday one week ago, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoffstetter, her brother, Frederick, and sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Garbarski of Chicago, a pleasant family group.

Miss Trace Johnson, who has been receiving treatment in Evanston hospital, is now hopefully recovering and her family are expecting her homecoming this week.

Mr. J. J. Dietrich who spent a short time with friends at Elgin, Yorkville and Wisconsin, not passing by without visiting Chicago, and other "small" towns on the old North Western, after an all too brief stay with old friends in Arlington Heights. He insisted California still had fine weather and left for his home at Pasadena last Friday.

Mrs. Raymond Friese entertained the Social Five Hundred club in her home Thursday evening this week.

Master John Ashton who has been kept from school with chicken pox is convalescing, yet not ready for school.

Rev. H. A. Kossack, still having a wish to lure northern neckled trout, accompanied Harry Garland and Mr. Herman to the pinelands of north Wisconsin first of this week.

Katie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vetter of North State road was taken to Northwestern hospital at DesPlaines for treatment last week.

Miss Lena Wilke was sick and spent a week at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Wilke.

Mr. Allen Schulte of East Hawthorne street has been spending the past week with friends at his old home town, Tuckertown, Wis.

Yvonne Davis has recovered from the chicken pox and now her brother, Donald, is shut in quite sick with same trouble.

Monday night "The Old Time Bunch" planned a surprise on Mrs. Roy Dobbins and Mrs. Charles McElhose, who entered this earthly sphere, or in other words had birthdays, on the same date. Mr. and Mrs. McElhose had been invited to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins to take dinner, and the large company—16 guests in all, kept the two "victims" in ignorance of the grand surprise. It was indeed a real old time joyous affair, knowing the Dobbins' hospitality. Much intensified in their farm home with all the "makings" of a sumptuous dinner in their hands. It was to say the least, a generous spread, and all the company had a genial good time.

Mrs. Raoul Peeter drove to Chicago, Tuesday taking her father, Mr. John Frolich, who has been visiting her. When they arrived at his home. He was greeted by his children who had gathered to give him a happy birthday surprise. Of course he was surprised or if he really was not, he was too good a scout to spoil their anticipation.

Mrs. Robert Rapp and her lively trio of sons spent a few happy days in her sisters home on a farm this week.

Mr. A. T. Chidley, with his sons, Keith and Raymond and a Chicago friend, spent three days of his vacation last week in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmitt, with their children and Miss Decker, drove up to McElhose to spend the week-end with Ralph Burkell on his newly acquired farm.

A beautiful day seemed to dawn on purpose Wednesday to give the 36 or more members an auspicious start on their club tour of the Chicago University. They left at nine o'clock in two buses. We're hoping the whole day and the tour will prove as auspicious as it begins this morning, November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wichter entertained eight guests to a pleasant dinner Sunday in their home in West Campbell street. The afternoon and evening were pleasantly spent with genial converse, games and a most interesting travelogue by the host and hostess, giving humorous and interesting features of their summer tour through Europe. The guests were from Oak Park, Cicero and Riverside. All departed ready to declare their host and hostess were royal entertainers.

Mrs. Augusta Garland Passes from Earth Life

Augusta Fricke, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fricke, was born in Chicago, Nov. 20, 1857. At a little farm near Park Ridge, because of the little daughter's delicate health, and there she grew to young womanhood.

She was married to George M. Garland in 1880. They moved in 1896 from Park Ridge to live in Des Plaines, where her husband had manufacturing interests. To them were given three children, Harry, William and Josephine. Josephine, the cherished only daughter, died in 1909; Mr. Garland in 1911.

Mrs. Garland was for years organist for the Congregational church at Park Ridge, of which, with her family, she was a member. She was the first bride in the church and in that church her children placed a basket of flowers as a remembrance, the Sunday after her death.

After moving to Des Plaines, the family united with the Congregational church of that place, and her children attended its Sunday school.

Mrs. Garland was a member of the Inter-Aia club of Des Plaines and in her helpless later years they have always remembered her with frequent visits and kindly regard, since she could no longer attend their meetings.

For nineteen years Mrs. Garland has been unable to walk or move about but never inactive, either in mind or the use of her poor crippled, yet helpful hands. She was a woman of brilliant mind, one who left a lasting impression on the many friends who came within the circle of her influence. In Chicago, her latest home, before coming here, in Park Ridge and Des Plaines, she leaves many old time friends.

With her son, William, who, with his family, lived with her in her Chicago home, she came to Arlington Heights, where he came to engage in the laundry business several years ago. Since that time she has been at times with one or other of her sons' families, where she was always a helpful, wise counselor. In her last long illness, she has been with her son, Harry's family, where she was tenderly cared for by Mrs. Helen Garland, who in her busy life of many cares, never forgot to care with a mother's sympathy for the great, motherly invalid who shared her cares.

Mrs. Garland passed from earth in the home of her son, Harry S. Garland after long suffering, Nov. 9, 1931. According to her oft expressed wish, the end was as when one falls peacefully asleep. The morning of that last day she talked brightly of all the arrangements for funeral and burial. Even expressed directions for disposal of her belongings in a cheerful way. Marvelous forethought for each member of her family was shown in personal letters of cheer and advice. Her pastor, Rev. H. A. Kossack, whose frequent calls were her comfort, was with her that last day.

She leaves to mourn their loss, which they will more and more realize as days go by, her two sons, Harry S. and William Garland; their wives, Helen and Clara; four grandchildren, Harry and Elizabeth, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Garland; Margaret, and George, children of Mr. and Mrs. William Garland; and hosts of other relatives and friends, wherever she was known.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon in the chapel at Des fruit cakes for your Thanksgiving dinner now. Call Mrs. Kunz, 443-3.

Mrs. Chris, Wilke of West Campbell street who has been ill for some weeks past is said to be recovering.

Plaines, where a throng of her relatives and friends gathered to pay a tribute of respect and love. As Mrs. Garland belonged to three generations of florists, it was natural that many, yea, masses of flowers surrounded the casket.

The music was given by Mrs. C. E. A. Lorenzen, and her daughter, Mrs. George Kost, who played the accompaniment to the vocal numbers by herself and her mother.

Mr. Kossack taking for his text Romans 8:35, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ," he paid a glowing tribute to the departed one, her clear, capable mind, her active helpfulness, patience and abiding faith.

The masses of flowers were disposed of by her children as far as possible in accord with her expressed wishes.

The burial took place in her family lot just across the street from the home where Mrs. Garland grew to young womanhood in Maine township.

In Memoriam
A woman strong to be, and do,
In all her glad and early days;
Caring for home and children through
The storm and sunshine of life's ways.

The loss of her one daughter dear,
The loss of family and friends;
God alone knows what strength and cheer,
Were hers, where oft the stronger bends.

Past middle age trials and cares,
Through valleys where dark shadows fell,
Came creeping on her unawares,
Afflictions all her strength to quell.

Helpless, no more to move about,
Her body bound as if in chains;
Her seeing eyes could still look out,
Beyond her suffering and pains.

Could see her children in distress,
Devising ways to meet each call,
Reaching a helping hand in stress,
To lighten burdens when they fall.

Her head so clear, her heart so kind,
She sat among them still their guide,
Her capable, far-seeing mind,
Strove for their failures to provide.

She loved the beautiful, the true,
Even suffering sought to find
Some words of cheer, something to do,
Her mission always to be kind.

Her children, as they journey on
Will miss her counsel and advice;
How all unselfish she has gone,
The thorny way of sacrifice.

Her poor, worn body, now at rest,
Her spirit free in joy will wait;
Her children freed from life's long quest,
Join her in joy inside the gate.

Your Battery Must Be Kept Fully Charged In Cold Weather

A cold motor is hard to turn over, because the lubricating oil is very stiff. Once in motion it is harder to start because carbonation is more difficult. And the battery, too, is affected by a drop in temperature. Even a brand new battery of the best construction affords only half the power output at ten degrees above zero that it does at summer temperature. And at ten below it can develop only twenty-five per cent as much energy as under ideal conditions.

If a battery is nearly worn out or is partially discharge its cold weather power is still lower. That is why it is particularly important to check your battery at the approach of cold weather. The Willard Storage Battery Company recommends periodic checking by a battery specialist as the best insurance against annoying battery failure. It's a good practice to follow, and may save hours of inconvenient delay just at the time when a car may be needed most if you visit Winkelman's Tire and Battery Shop for battery check-up.

Best restrain our warlike expression
Watch maneuvers, and sit tight.

Saw a "wise crack," or something under that head, that read,
"Looking back on depression."
That's easy. Well remember hearing a civil war veteran tell of what to him seemed a needless retreat from an attacking rebel force. His colonel, well mounted and mortally scared, led far ahead of his regiment, and frequently looked back, called in a rather trembling voice,
"Steady my braves! Steady!"

Whatever "Depression" means or "how come," these who led us into it, may be leading a retreat; no need to call to us in such a maneuver to go steady; as we stand or fall in the fray, there is no possible use to cry "Steady, my braves, steady."
Great time for leaders to call to the people, "Its up to you—keep steady."

We have a cousin, a double cousin, in our family who has a "yen" (don't know exactly what that means, but it sounds nice, don't you think?) Well she has one of those things, and has used years of time and banks of money in getting up a family "tree" in the form of a peacock tail with an elegant spread, big and expansive as the Lindbergh beacon. It sets one agape to view the number of ancestors dating back to within a generation or so of Adam.

Imagine "taking after" such a vast army of ancestors. Here comes a bright young business man from the city with his cousin, Mrs.
Beardsley; both of whom have a "yen" for family trees. And this pleasing young man really admired that family tree—though I won't admit it ever bore a crop of nuts.
So this young son of our dear friend, Olive Duntion Lines is going to have a family tree of his own.
If she can find a field large enough for her little grandson, Daniel Milne Bergens to plant all his Scotch ancestors in a company with the Hawkes and Beardsleys, Mrs.
Beardsley is to have just such a tree.

Ancestors are a splendid heritage, but some times those who bank too much on them, give the impression of being like a potato field, "the best part of them underground." Yet there is a satisfaction in looking back over a long list of Christian ancestors, and we'll do we know "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

Two high school youths, living, O not so far from the school, had an automobile accident on their way home last Monday. Dear me, we used to go a mile and a half to school and never lost any time from the most vigorous games. It may be all wrong, but I somehow question if all this modern improvement stuff is making us stronger, better or happier.

Mr. Dietrich was speaking of the various "improvements," radios, automobiles and flying machines as so different now from fifty years ago. Count Keyserling is quoted as saying that in America the individual is ceasing to exist; that the machine and standardization kills the man. That manners, customs, intellectual interests and emotions are being reduced to a dead level of uniformity.

However, this may be as settled among the learned, I do believe with Mr. Dietrich, people got more quiet enjoyment out of life fifty years ago than even young people do in this machine age of nervous drive and strain. Too much "seeking out inventions" has produced a nervous unsteady people. We may know more about some things, yet
I fear we think less and live less.
I may not drive a motor car, nor guide an aeroplane; I'd rather ride a dandy horse and gallop down the lane.

Saw a big headline that read
"New planets are suspected." See there! We may be getting warm in our search for the cause of all our tragic mixup and confusion. We do reel off heaps of sage editorials and learned discussions. We buzz around and strike out in all directions and where do we get by all of our silly buzzing—like the moth about the lamp.

The Chinese poet says, violence is weaker than serenity. Thus he says it:
"The Moth
Enraged
Beats against the lamp
His wings forming countless fans.
And falls at last
A fragile pinch of gray ashes . . .
The lamp burns on tranquilly."

You know the poet who wrote:
"I'll fare the land, To threatening ills a prey,
Where wealth accumulates and men decay."
Do you suppose that is what is the matter with our land just now?
Think of one man commandeering twelve banks; about the decay of men, analyze, what ails our taxes, assessments, and our public affairs generally. O blame it to whom so ever you will; the facts remain.

Some of you will remember how much our friend, Mrs. Lucy Davis used to cherish her pets—birds, cats, dogs or horse. When some time ago, I think it was last year, she was planning to go from California to Northern Wisconsin. At the time she had seven cherished pet cats. These she was making plans to take with her on her long journey. Meantime the cats had a feed of fish which unfortunately produced ptomaine poisoning and Mrs. Davis' pets all perished.

Little Buddy Peeter was looking forward to a happy birthday last week when severe throat trouble turned his anticipation to dread and he had to go to a hospital and have a surgeon messing up his poor throat. He is at home now and will be ready for his party by and bye. Buddy could sympathize with the little boy who wanted to go to the circus and his parents told him instead if he would be a good boy they would take him to seek his grandmother's grave.

Some one recently tried to make a story out of tumble weed and tickle grass. That reminds me of the fun we prairie school children used to have chasing the tumble weeds and how made a regular game of it. Over and over they rolled until at last, if "we didn't catch them they would roll in the ditch by Mr. Ed. Booth's field and O the fun we had.

On a windy autumn day
How prairie children used to play;
Running breathless with what speed,
To catch the rolling tumble weed.
If they kept it from the ditch,
They scared off the prairie witch.

Someone named it, rather queer,
Torment of the pioneer;
Yet I knew no better fun,
Than to chase it on the run;
E'er it reached the meadow fence,
It was ours, at no expense.

Tumblers rolled, yet worse alas!
Was the creeping tickle grass;
Up and up the torment crept,
While the runners onward kept;
On and on to stay the witch,
Rolling straight into the ditch.

Far off days the prairie girl,
Had such cumbering skirts to whirl;
Had such long stiff pantaloons,
That delayed, and caused her frets,
Heavy shoes with thick stiff soles,
Hindered, as the tumble rolls.

Little girls with us today,
Feel no hindrance in their play;
Brief skirts, slender legs don't mind rantes all too brief to find;
So the little modern lass,
Can defy the tickle grass.

O, the wild November gale,
How it filled the tumblers sail;
Prairie children on the fly,
Gaily answered his defi;
Tickle grass, no conquerer crept,
Staying speed as on they swept.

Heavy garments could not stay,
Wirey muscles in their play;
Tickle grass and tumble weed,
Bred the prairie child to speed.
Modern games require expense, Tumble weeds, winds, ditch or fence,
Nature's outfit wins all compiled,
To delight the prairie child.

Twenty-five dollars for a child to ride on a bicycle, making his legs grow stiff and crooked. Making stoop forward and contract his chest, thus limiting his breathing capacity. Roller skates that, with continued speeding do things to the chords and muscles of his legs.

Walking and running and jumping are the best exercise with the right listlessness ask your doctor about it.

Speaking of changes, the Dibleys
now plan to go to live at Evanston, where he holds his old position.
Their son lives there. Their daughter, Miss Katherine finished school and for a time the family have remained here to be near her associates and family friends. They now conclude to move to Evanston to be near his work and their son's family. Many friends in Arlington Heights regret their going away.

So many things it would be a pleasure to speak of in these notes, but fear they might cause seismic disturbances or hardened arteries in the body politic, rather let us discuss diet. Now Mr. Charles Paddock bragged a bit about his strict adherence to diet and the last time we asked him as to its affect he said his diet was all right, he couldn't die yet. Now wasn't he cute?

There's so much good and so much bad,
So many happy, others sad;
There's much I'd love to write about,
Yet fear the censor might leave out.
The ancient things seem such dull stuff,
The newer?—Well they seem too tough,
Will some wise friend come in their might,
And tell me what is safe to write?

Thursday the earthly form of Mrs. Augusta Garland, who belonged to a long line of florists, was carried to its final resting place. It was natural that those who loved and honored her should wish to express this with flowers; masses of beautiful flowers were brought anticipating this would be so Mrs. Garland requested that in her memory these tokens of love should be taken to the church and to the hospital, rather than to be carried to the cemetery where no one could enjoy them. It was like her thoughtful kindly nature to do this.

Armistice Day! What memories that word awakens. More of terror than of joy, when we recall the horrors of war. So much of blood and treasure is no way to be recalled except in grief. Grief for our boys slain in a foreign warfare in which we had no part. Grief for the soldiers of our own land who now prolong a living agony in death, languishing in hospitals all over our land. Others lame or blind, helpless in their homes. How they did try to engender hate that some might accumulate wealth.
They chanted "War Makes Big Business" and so it did, but not for our own. Hate—how we cherish it.
God pity us and lead us to know that the blessings of peace will not come to our nation, to the world, until we drive out envy, hatred and malice.

They brought him from across the sea,
"The Unknown Soldier" naming him,
The troubling question still must be
Who in that dreadful warfare
grim, Murdered the soldier called unknown.

Or, since his form was never shown
Is it but parts of several slain
That on the battle field lie slain, Brought to us, symbolizing those Who on far battle fields repose;
As groups of light that shine afar,
Come to us as a single star?
It matters not, many or one,
Since myriad murders there were done.

Today loud shouts, will find release Where fluttering flags whip on the air;
The bands will play, "Hail, hail to Peace"
Mid firing guns and trumpets' flare.
While on that unknown soldiers grave,
Masses of flowers will be spread,
While our own soldiers, loyal, brave
In a far foreign land lie dead,
Lie dead upon a foreign field Where no home flowers deck their shield.
O paradoxical words, peace when Flowers deck murders and murdered men.

These questions vex the sad and
unknown,
Mists cloud the way,
O, God, remove our doubt and fear,
Help us to see with vision clear;
That if we trust in Thee and pray
All hate and war must pass away.
Let us remember sad and lone,
Are soldiers in this land of ours,
Living and suffering in need,
Of friendly words and kindly deed;
Let us remember these—our own
O, that cleared vision might reveal
This our own brothers' sad appeal.
And that we might in truth discover,
The end of war and swords and
shields,
And graves on foreign battle fields;
When man, as one great Brotherhood,
Hath our Lord's message understood,
Beneath Peace Angel wings world
over!
—Elinore Crisler Haynes.

Miss Edna Kehe
Married to C. Drewes

Miss Edna, youngest daughter of Mr. John Kehe of North Evergreen avenue, Arlington Heights, and Mr. Carl Drewes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drewes of Des Plaines, were married Saturday, November 14, at four o'clock afternoon in the home of the bride's father, Rev.
Harry C. Fricke of St. Peter's Lutheran church reading the sacred marriage rites.

The bride was escorted to the place where the pastor stood, by her eldest brother, Mr. Fred Kehe.
Her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Arthur Haas; her other attendants were the Misses Esther Drewes Horcher and Adele Meier.
The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Mr. Edwin Djevewes. The ushers were Mr. Raymond Kehe and Mr. Clarence Zinkle.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a long capote veil, her shower bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore a gown of orchid color and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Horcher wore pink and carried a white bouquet; Miss Meier green with orchid flowers.

The wedding march was played by the bride's nephew, Mr. Arthur Krahn, who later played the accompaniment, when Mrs. Milton Daniels sweetly, in gentle tones sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Liddle.

After the impressive ceremony and congratulations, the bridal group went to Des Plaines to be photographed. Later the guests, to the number of one hundred or more, went to Meyer's pavilion where a generous wedding supper was served by girl friends of the bride.
Mr. Albert Kehe, cousin of the bride, served as toastmaster. An interesting fact revealed was that both the bride and groom are from families of twelve children. There were games, cards and music for the company, and dancing for all who desired to trip "The light fantastic."

The beautiful autumn colors, the pretty house decorations, all blended to make this a delightful wedding.

There were many beautiful gifts and hearty congratulations. The newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. Carl Drewes will be at home in the home of the bride's father, Mr.
John Kehe, where the bride, the youngest daughter has, since the death of her mother, kept her father's home.

Among out of town guests were
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kehe, Mr. and Mrs. Wehling from Clinton, Iowa, —relatives of the bride—Mr. and Mrs. Becker from Fairmont, Minnesota, relatives of the groom.

Horrors of that fraternal war, Men asked "What are we fighting for?"
O, strange the price of peace today
When conquered nations still must pay.

Nations grown rich in power and land,
That of their victims make demand,
Armistice Day! O spare the name,
Has it not put fair peace to shame?
Who finds the spot 'neath stranger skies,
Or who certainly identifies,
The place where lies our dead
unknown.

These questions vex the sad and lone,
Mists cloud the way,
O, God, remove our doubt and fear,
Help us to see with vision clear;
That if we trust in Thee and pray
All hate and war must pass away.
Let us remember sad and lone,
Are soldiers in this land of ours,
Living and suffering in need,
Of friendly words and kindly deed;
Let us remember these—our own
O, that cleared vision might reveal
This our own brothers' sad appeal.
And that we might in truth discover,
The end of war and swords and
shields,
And graves on foreign battle fields;
When man, as one great Brother-
hood,
Hath our Lord's message understood,
over!

Continuing his interpretation of the Fifth Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," Pastor Fricke will speak on the topic, "Bloodless Murder."

Murder without bloodshed—killing by inches—effects of grief, care, and worry—our machine age and the life of our workers—sacrificing life, liberty and happiness at the altar of big business—the poisonous source of murder; the hateful heart. These are some of the significant thoughts to be emphasized in the sermon on Sunday.

RAND ROAD SPIRITUALIST CHURCH

Services, Sunday, Nov. 22, 8 p. m.
Healing by Dr. Lynge.
Messages by Chicago and Des Plaines Mediums.

Pankau, Pastor.
Rand Road Spiritualist church had a large attendance last Sunday. The speaker of the evening was Swami Gnaniwaranda. The subject was Hindu Mystics, covering three points—Existence after death; real happiness and the base of all knowledge. The lecture started with a beautiful duet from Dr. I. F.
Brown and wife, and was closed with the well known duet, "Face to Face," which touched every heart. After the lecture Pastor Pankau gave the invocation, followed by Dr. Carl Lynge on a convinced and forceful speech on spiritualism, and the life of Christ and disciples. After the service circles were formed and messages were given by Pastor Pankau and Mrs.
Kelso of Des Plaines.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Business has lead Mr. Bruce Jarvis away from home for the past two weeks while he has been in the south.

A very pleasant time was had by Mrs. Leslie Moodie when she had lunch at Oak Park with a group of former high school friends who have meetings together from time to time.

Mr. J. Firnbach took Mr. and Mrs. C. Fitzpatrick and Grandpa Bush to Libertyville Sunday to visit Mrs. Max Miller, who has been in the Evanston hospital a number of weeks since her return from Arizona.

Mrs. Hartwood of Chicago spent the day, Monday, and remained over until Tuesday, with her daughter, Mrs. Franke, and then the two ladies went to Irving Park to visit friends.

Mrs. Ida Seiburg and her father called on relatives in Aptakisic last Friday.

Thursday Mrs. Guild and Mrs. Hodgkins attended the conference of Woman's club President's at the Art Institute in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. W. Geffert entertained guests at dinner Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. James McCarthy, Dr. Isabella Herb of Hebbard Woods, Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Wood and Miss Sarah Chambers of Chicago, and Mrs. Frank Whiting of Arlington Heights were dinner guests at the home of Mr. George Klehm Saturday.

The Ever Ready club will meet Monday, November 23, at Mrs. George Pfingsten's home, S. State road. This meeting has been changed from Wednesday on account of Thanksgiving. The next meeting, December 9, will be for election of officers.

Wednesday evening the Gleaners' circle met with Miss Elizabeth Heller on N. Dunton street.

Saturday evening Mrs. Edw. Geffert entertained about twelve guests at bridge.

Last Friday Mrs. Noble Puffer attended a luncheon and bridge party at the home of Mrs. Frank Gyax of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwartz of Scarsdale entertained friends from Chicago at bridge on Friday evening, and on Sunday evening they entertained the Sunday club also from Chicago.

Monday evening the Young Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church met at the home of Miss Martha Jackson.

Rev. and Mrs. Taylor entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tweedie of Lucknow, India.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. I. Davis entertained about sixteen friends at bridge.

The Garden club met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Frank McBride, 121 S. Highland avenue. Prof. Eifrig of Concordia Teachers' college at River Forest, was to speak on "By-Ways of Botany."

Womans Club Notes

December second, the following program to be given: Book Reviews—Mrs. F. C. Nieman, chairman.

On this date the District officers will be guests of the club.

South Side Breezes

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Erber celebrated their daughter's tenth birthday, Sunday, Nov. 15, at their home in Elmhurst. Several relatives and friends from Arlington Heights were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Erber and family, Mrs. Schmitt and son, Mr. and Mrs. O. Mollenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zoellner and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kizzi and daughter, DeLore. From Wheeling were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koepfen from Mt. Prospect; Mr. and Mrs. A. Ruteike, from Gladstone; Mrs. Gosh from Palatine; Mr. and Mrs. Tegmeier, and from Bensenville, Mr. Fred Koebel.

That birthday will be long remembered for everyone had such a good time. A musician provided with good things to eat, nothing was left undone for the guests' pleasure.

Mrs. Calvin Hoyt visited Mrs. Hetherington in Elgin Sunday. The Hetheringtons are moving into a larger apartment that Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Hartman and baby may live with them. Mr. Hartman will still be at the store here, ready to serve you.

Mr. Neville's family and Mrs. Calvin Mitchell saw the play "Seventeen" given Saturday evening at the Crane farms. Refreshments were served to the audience.

Several ladies from the Auxiliary plan to attend the 9th district meeting at the Mt. Prospect Country club Thursday night.

Mrs. Hoyt and Mrs. Sauer attended a luncheon party in Chicago Monday evening.

Mrs. Victor Pecchia was a guest at a surprise luncheon and shower given for her sister in Chicago, Wednesday.

Mrs. Thos. Pope's mother, Mrs. Wilms visited her Tuesday.

Mrs. Sauer and Mrs. Hoyt, who are interested in all kind of sports, have become enthusiastic over the bicycle races. They attended them Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hoyt entertained their Pinocchio Card club Saturday evening. Mr. Hasemann and Mrs. Sauer were first prize. May be it wasn't very nice to treat their away-from-home guests so but all they gave Mr. and Mrs. Schwiesall of Edison Park, was a booby prize. Everybody had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clansy of Saginaw, Michigan, visited the Barrett's Sunday. They were enroute to Washington and found they had a few hours wait in Chicago, so came out to talk over old times when they all lived in Scottville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelo. So. Mitchell, visited Thursday and Friday with the latter's aunt in Hobart, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Giese and children of Glen Ellyn were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams.

Mr. Brown from Effingham county is visiting at Virgil Merry's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralison and daughter, Patsey of Villa Park, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Utterbach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Samuelson and baby have returned from Albuquerque, New Mexico and are living at 440 So. Evergreen. Mr. Samuelson is much improved in health.

Get your spring ducks, geese and chickens at reasonable prices. Live or dressed. Call Art. Hrs. 7033-M. E. T. Custis. Also deliver.

Epworth League Is Very Active

Friday, Nov. 20, a group from the Epworth League of the M. E. church in Arlington Heights will visit Park Ridge M. E. church to attend a "Do-It-Yourself" party. All neighboring leagues will be represented. A great time is to be expected.

The last link in our chain of Chum Week fellowship will be added when Rev. Taylor leads us in our meeting and discussion Sunday evening, Nov. 22.

Thursday evening, Nov. 19, the League is holding a camp fire service in the parlor at 7:30. The meeting is to carry out the Chum Week idea, and the program will be based on the camp fire services held at Lake Geneva institute. Dorothy Helm and Grace Knox will have charge. You are urged to come and join our Chum Week fellowship.

The league is working on a play, "Tea Tapper Tavern," directed by Miss Iva Beely.

The League entertained the sub-district officers Thursday, Nov. 12. A peppy leader from Northern District led in many snappy games. The large crowd present unanimously voted a good time. Refreshments were served in the parlor.

Sunday, Nov. 15, the League began their Chum Week with a delicious supper (even if the cooks did leave the salt out of the potatoes). After a period of fellowship at the table, the group spent a period of fellowship in the form of a meeting. Mr. Lennartson led the discussion of a very interesting topic, "What It Means to Choose for Christ."

Ancient Italian City

The city of Pisa, Italy, was probably of Etruscan origin. It became subject to Rome in 180 B. C. At the height of its greatness in the Twelfth century, it is thought to have had a population of 150,000. In the Sixteenth century its population had dwindled to about 8,500. It is now in a thriving condition with a population in the commune of about 70,000.

Bowling News

The first place Kehe Motor team lost a little ground Monday evening, when they let the Gieseke Store boys take them for two games, but were close games to the end, only 12 pins difference for a three game series. Ray Becker, turning in a 256 game and a 623 series for the Truck Drivers, The Dryer Electric boys were still hot from the week before but the Candy Boys were just a little better to take two games from them. The Candy Boys are now tie for third place, but have the most pins on Monday evening, so be careful Kehe Motor.

On alleys 5 and 6 the strong Steinke Five took the Karstens boys for two games to gain a game on the leaders—Kehe Motor.

Artificial Flowers
If artificial flowers are not fresh looking, they will be improved if the edges of the flowers and leaves are trimmed with a sharp pair of scissors. Finally shake them over a steaming kettle and allow to dry in a draft.

Divorce in Old China
The seven justifying causes for divorce under the old Chinese code were barrenness, lasciviousness, disregard of the husband's parents, talkativeness, thievishness, envious and suspicious temper and inveterate infirmity.
